FOUR SETS OF VIEWERS NAMED

Commissioners Act Favorably on as Many Road Petitions Before Them Today

THREE IN THIS TOWNSHIP

Whether First, Eleventh Street And New Salem Pike Are Paved Depends on Viewers

COUNTY LINE ROAD ALSO

Joint Meeting of Fayette And Rush Boards Results in Favorable Action on Highway

The improvement of First street under the three-mile road law and the construction of two permanent highways by constructing the roadway of brick or concrete are now up to the viewers, and whether the roads are constructed depends largely on their report.

Road men, mostly brick and concrete advocates, thronged the commissioners room today, all seeking to see that the improvement go through. The commissioners acted first on the First street paving petition by appointing John Spencer and George W. McBride as the viewers and Adolphus Cameron as engineer.

As was expected, the petitioners made good their word to the city council and changed the petition so that the street would be paved with brick instead of concrete. The petition was also amended so that the road will end at Hodges branch instead of at Will L. King Corner. The First street petitioners believe this is a step towards a final victory for them, as they think that the viewers will report favorable under the amended petition. No time has been set for the viewers to report.

The commissioners appointed Dr. Charles Smullen and Oliver J. Cook as viewers for the Dr. Frank Green, et al., highway. This road has been pending before the commissioners since Jan. 8, 1914. It is proposed to pave the highway with concrete. The road starts at the corner of Main and Eleventh streets and extends northeast along the Fort Wayne road to the T. J. Humes farm.

The third road upon which action was taken was the Frank Capp, et al. highway. This road starts in Jersey City and continuing along the New Salem pike for a distance of three miles with concrete. The viewers appointed were Fred Lightfoot and Jess W. Peters. Cameron is the engineer in all of the roads.

At the joint session of the commissioners of this county and the commissioners of Fayette county the petition asking for the improvement of the road from Glenwood to Falmouth was acted upon by appointment.

ATTEMPT TO TAKE LIFE IS FAILURE

Charles R. Rasor, Manager of Gem Theater Tries Suicide, Bullet Missing Heart.

DESPONDENCY IS THE CAUSE

Physician Says he Has Chance to Recover--Worried Over Own And Father's Illness.

Charles R. Rasor, 28 years old, manager of the Gem theater, attempted suicide Sunday afternoon by shooting himself, at his home, corner of First and Morgan streets. The bullet missed his heart by a narrow margin and it was stated today that he had more than an equal chance of recovering.

Despondency and ill health are said to have been the cause of his act. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin W. Rasor, and with his wife, they all live together in the residence at First and Morgan street. Mr. Rasor's father has been ill for several weeks, suffering from pneumonia. He himself had been ill for some time and worry over his own condition and that of his father is believed to have weighed so heavily on his mind that he became temporarily insane.

About one-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon the family received the first intimation of the near tragedy when they heard the shot. Rushing into his bedroom they made the discovery. A physician was called immediately. An examination showed that the bullet had passed through his body and missed his heart about an inch. Unless complications develop he is expected to recover. The revolver was of .38 caliber.

The picture show has been operated by the father and son, and when both became sick, Charles Rasor tried to keep the business going. Last week he seemed to improve, but could not keep from worrying. Last Friday he remarked to one friend that "he felt as though he was going to cash in any time." Following the shooting and after he had recovered from the first shock, he is said to have remarked to relatives that he had planned the day before just how he was going to die and had worked out all the details.

From this it will be seen that he had contemplated the act. The attempted suicide came as a surprise to those who know him. While he was of a nervous disposition it was not believed that his troubles were of such a magnitude as to drive him to suicide. The Rasors came here from Piqua, Ohio, about two years ago. Charles Rasor was married to Miss Agnes Higgs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Higgs, on January 6th.

FIX SCHEDULE OF ASSESSMENT

Township Assessors Agree on Values at Which Farm Personal Property Will be Taken.

AUTOMOBILES NOT IN THE LIST

Mortgages, Money and Notes Will be Assessed at 75 per cent Face Value as Usual.

The township assessors, at their meeting with the county assessor, Henry W. Schrader, Saturday, agreed on a schedule for the coming assessing period, which begins Wednesday and lasts for seventy-five days.

Mortgages, money and notes will be taken at seventy-five per cent of their face value, the same as they were last year. No agreement could be reached as to additional improvements on real estate because they are purely estimate work. Real estate is appraised only every four years. Last year was the time for doing that work.

County Assessor Schrader read the letter from the state board of tax commissioners to the township assessors. The state board asked that all personal property be appraised at its true cash value and then twenty-five per cent can be deducted for purposes of equalization. The state board said that the deduction should not be made under any consideration unless the real cash value was the basis of the assessment.

"We expect to follow the instructions of the state board of tax commissioners fully," said the county assessor. "We did that last year and had an excellent report. The state board was well pleased with it."

Mr. Schrader said it was impossible to agree on a fixed value for automobiles because there are so many varieties, both good and indifferent. He stated today that the appraised value of machines would likely be from fifty dollars up and that the appraisement would be left to the individual assessor.

The following schedule for farm personal property was agreed upon: Horses under one year of age, $25 to $50; one and over, $50 to $90; two and over, $75 to $100; three and over, $125 and up; cattle under one year of age, $10 to $25; one year and over, $25 and up; two years and over, six cents a pound; three years and over, six cents a pound; sheep, $4 to $6 per head; stock hogs, seven cents a pound; young brood sows, $10 to $15 a head; old brood sows, $12 to $20 per head; wheat per bushel, $1.00; corn per bushel, 50c; rye per bushel, 60c; oats per bushel, 30c; timothy seed, per bushel, $2; clover seed, per bushel, $9; hay, per ton, $8 to $10; pork per pound, ten cents; lard per pound, ten cents.

CHANCE OF MOTOR ROUTES SMALL

Recent Action of House Making Majority Petition Necessary Dims Prospects.

MAY BE UP TO THE PATRONS

Probable Prospective Changes, Including Rush, Will be Held up Pending Senate Action.

Chances of the rural routes of Rush county being motorized have been considerably lessened by the action of the house of representatives last week in passing an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill and incidentally the opportunity of putting out of the service rural carriers who are not in sympathy with the present national administration were dimmed.

Wayne has been experiencing great difficulty from the motorized system. Many complaints regarding the service were made—so many in fact that two postoffice inspectors were rushed to Richmond to straighten out the tangle. Revision of the routes and addition of some more motor routes and two horse-vehicle routes was the method to help matters temporarily. Rush county was said to be on the schedule for a change not so far distant.

The motor route plan was defeated by having an amendment made to the postoffice appropriation bill which provides that no part of the money appropriated for rural mail delivery may be spent for motor vehicle routes until a majority of the patrons of the route shall have petitioned the postoffice department for motor service.

What effect such legislation will have on the new motor routes scheduled for this and other counties in Indiana for April and May is not to be conjectured at this time, but it is thought that the order creating these routes will be held up temporarily until the senate acts on the appropriation bill and its amendment.

Since the amendment provides that motor service may not be put in until a petition has been presented by a majority of patrons on any route, it is now morally certain that the service in Marion county, as well as in Wayne and other counties, will be held up indefinitely. Despite reports to the contrary, many objections have been registered by rural residents in this and other counties, both from the fact of delayed deliveries, and, in many instances, from being left off the new routes.

Dispatches from Washington say that Representative Wood of Lafayette, and Gray of Connersville, were prominent in the fight against motor service and both voted for the amendment. Wood made a speech against the plan, saying that the motor routes never had been satisfactory since they had been adopted in Tippecanoe county, and Gray made the same statement as to Wayne county.

The civil service rules permit of a scheme if placed in use, which eventually would bring into the service only men of the predominating political party. For instance, should a vacancy be announced, the civil service commission has the right to select from the three names leading the list of eligibles. Should one of these men be of the ruling political party, he may be selected regardless of the fact that the two others might hold better grades from examinations. The second and third vacancies may be filled in the same manner, and, in that event, the two who have not been selected, then pass out.

Ambassador Bernstorff Lays Before Lansing Memorandum Reiterating Previous Intention

WILL TAKE EFFECT MARCH 1.

Bernstorff Shows Original British Order Instructing Vessels to Destroy Them

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Ambassador Bernstorff today laid before Secretary Lansing a memorandum received from the Berlin foreign office containing a reiteration of Germany's intention to torpedo armed merchantmen without warning, beginning Wednesday.

Neither Lansing nor Bernstorff would comment, but it was learned the memorandum contained a score of reports of German submarine commanders that armed British merchantmen had used their arms offensively when the submarine tried to stop them. It contained references to alleged secret admiralty orders giving instructions to British merchantmen to attack and destroy submarines.

It became known today for the first time that Bernstorff recently gave Secretary Lansing the original copy of what he said were such orders found on the Appam, captured by a German raider.

Baron Zwiadinek, Austrian charge, also called on Lansing but left no memorandum. He said Austria's attitude was the same as Germany's.

Secretary Lansing today conferred with Ambassador Bernstorff at 11:30. Ambassador Bernstorff conferred with Baron Zwiadinek, Austrian charge, before going to the state department. The latter expected also to see Secretary Lansing during the day.

At the German embassy it was made clear that no postponement of the decree due to go into effect tomorrow midnight is expected there.

TO GIVE WARNING BEFORE ATTACK

German Submarines Will Not Attack Passenger Liners Without Notifying Them

NOT ENDANGER HUMAN LIFE

Possible Diplomatic Break With United States Receives Consideration in Berlin

FEELING IN BERLIN TENSE

Germans Now Appreciate Situation Since They Have Read President's Letter to Stone

By CARL W. ACKERMAN (U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Berlin, (Via Amsterdam), Feb. 28. German submarines will torpedo no passenger liners without warning even after the new order against armed merchantmen goes into effect at midnight Tuesday, the United Press was reliably informed today.

Furthermore, submarine commanders will endanger human life only in case a steamer attempts to escape, to fire on the submarine, or to ram her. This was the last word given out here today, with the beginning of the U-boat campaign against armed merchantmen a few hours off. The statement was made while the officials were still contemplating the impressive utterances of President Wilson in his letter to Chairman Stone of the senate foreign relations committee.

As the hour for the inauguration of the new campaign approaches, the question of a possible diplomatic break with the United States is receiving greater consideration here.

Officials and the public alike frankly admit today that America's attitude is unfriendly. In their new campaign, the United Press was informed, U-boat commanders will act under these instructions:

They will not torpedo every ship encountered, trusting to prove later that they were armed.

They will not violate instructions previously given to warn passenger liners.

They will not endanger human lives, unless the ships attempt to escape, to ram the attacking submarine, or to fire on her.

In short the difference between the past and the present, as regards passengers liners, is that in the future armed liners will not be considered legitimate peaceful trading ships.

It can be stated definitely that Germany, by the new regulations, is not courting trouble with America. But if some future accident endangers America or causes American losses, Germany will be convinced that the responsibility will not rest with her, because she has fully warned Americans publically, and the American government officially.

President Wilson's letter to Senator Stone, first published here yesterday, has caused a sensation in government circles and in the American colony. I visited the foreign office, the admiralty office and the offices of Berlin editors. The Wilson letter has had the effect of a thunderbolt out of a clear sky.

German leaders are surprised that President Wilson has coupled the controversy over armed merchantmen with the question of America's personal honor.

President Wilson's letter to Chairman Stone has suddenly brought full realization to German officials that the situation between Germany and the United States has reached a serious stage.

Laboring Man Says Watson Is Man Of Common People

Declaring that James E. Watson of this city, candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination in Indiana, is a man of the common people who is unaffected by office-holding, Charlie Lutz, 1605 East Kirby Avenue, Muncie, Ind., has contributed the following to the Muncie Press:

To the Voters of Eastern Indiana:

There are times when forbearance ceases to be a virtue and this seems to be one of those times from a political standpoint. I am not an educated man and have no experience in newspaper writing. I justify the inclusion of this article on the public on the ground that the motive is right and the causes sufficient. As a laboring man I am interested in the prosperity of our common country and prosperity is very largely dependent on a protective tariff and a protective tariff is dependent on Republican success. The present prosperity is largely imaginary. Only those having war munitions and war necessities are prosperous. It is temporary only and may vanish in a night. It is not the result of Democratic legislation, but is wholly based on murder, rapine, and the suffering of children and widows of Europe and will not last, and the Democratic party only discredits itself by claiming credit for such a prosperity.

After the present war ceases then will surely come a time when this country will need brainy, able, experienced men in the United States Senate. Many and various subjects and questions will confront congress. The Senate will be no place for millionaires and mere chair warmers. It will be the time and the immediate time, for broad statesmanship and the exercise of prompt and vigorous action on the tariff. It will not do to simply appoint a tariff commission at an immense expense and permit it to go junketing in Europe for two years at the government's expense and during that time Congress to remain inactive on tariff legislation, for the reason that Europe, with its starving millions of laborers, will work them so cheaply and manufacture at such an insignificant cost, and it owning and controlling 90 per cent of the shipping facilities, will ship its products into this country by millions of tons and undersell our manufacturers in every competitive line, while your tariff commission is yet junketing and having a good time.

Then there will be no work for our laborers and no market for our products and then what? The answer is apparent, our mills will close and our laborers will be idle.

and then want, misery and trouble will ensue; business will be stagnated, disturbed discouraged, and bankruptcy will inevitably follow in very many cases.

All of which leads one to the conclusion that in choosing a candidate for senator, it is well to consider first, his qualifications. Second, his ability and third, his experience, and when one does this, Hon. James E. Watson is at once suggested as the one best choice. He has the experience, energy, character and ability. He is the most brilliant orator in this country and a man with a national reputation as a wise and safe statesman who has never been afflicted with "swelled head." If he meets you and knows you he invariably salutes you with a hearty—How are you Jim or Joe or Bill? or what ever your name happens to be, and he delights in being called just "Jim." No "Mr." necessary. When he comes to town it is his pleasure to walk out on the streets and greet his friends, which he does, and he hunts them up.

I remember being in Washington once at a K. of P. national convention. Mr. Watson was then a congressman from the Sixth congressional district and a noted man in the House and a member of the great ways and means committee. A bunch of us clodhoppers wanted to see the Capitol and White House and meet the President. We went to the Capitol and sent a note in to Jim Watson that stated "that a bunch of Hoosiers were lost and wanted to be shown the way." In five minutes Jim Watson was among us shaking hands right and left regardless of the fact that we were not from his district and some of the bunch were Democrats. They were Hoosiers and that was enough for Jim. In less than one-half hour he knew every man's name and called him by it and he was thereafter addressed as "Jim." He took us all through the Capitol and White House and introduced us to the President and for three days made us enjoy our Washington visit.

Two years after that I was going down a street in Muncie dressed in overalls and working garb with a pick and shovel on my shoulder, when I heard someone call "Hello Charlie," and turning I found no less personage than Jim Watson. He had not forgotten me and was not too stuck up to greet a poor common laborer, and remember he, was not running for office either. A man with that disposition is a friend of the people and regardless of the 2x4 politicians and cheap slanderers, he gets my vote March 7, 16.

BEGINS TOUR OF WAYNE THIS WEEK

James E. Watson is Scheduled For Whirlwind Trip Through County Today and Tuesday.

LAST SPEECH AT RICHMOND

Richmond, Ind., Feb. 28.—James E. Watson of Rushville will push his candidacy for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator from Indiana in Wayne county in a two days' "swing around the circle" by automobile beginning today and Tuesday. His campaign will close with a rally in the Knights of Pythias Temple on South Eighth street of Richmond at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The solid support of Rush and Shelby counties is assured to Mr. Watson in his candidacy. W. S. Montgomery of Shelbyville, one of the Watson boosters, said today. He said the outlook in the entire state is unusually hopeful for the success of the former representative of the Sixth Indiana district.

The schedule that has been prepared is: Monday—Centerville, 9 a. m.; Greensfork, 10:45 a. m.; Williamsburg, 1 p. m.; Economy, 2:30 p. m.; Hagerstown, 6:15 p. m.; and Cambridge City, 7:45 p. m. Tuesday—Fountain City, 7:45 a. m.; Webster, 9 a. m.; Richmond, K. of P. hall, 8 p. m.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary. Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Unabridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort. So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. MISSING FROM THE MALOJA TOTALS 169

Of That Number Lost on Vessel Which is Believed to Have Struck Mine 55 Were Passengers

SEVEN STEAMERS GO DOWN

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 28.—Revised figures show that 169 persons, including 55 passengers, are missing and probably lost in the sinking of the Peninsular and Oriental liner Maloja.

The Maloja was one of seven steamers which were sunk by Tueton submarines, fire and mines of the various belligerent nations. They were of a total gross tonnage of 25,000, four of them being British, one Swedish, one Dutch and one Norwegian.

The biggest ship sunk during Sunday was the British Peninsular and Oriental liner Maloja, a sister ship of the Persia, which is believed to have struck a mine in the Straits of Dover near the British coast. The Persia was sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine Dec. 30, 1915.

The Maloja was a vessel of 12,431 tons gross and carried approximately 119 passengers and a crew of about 200, mostly Lascars.

Candidacy of Judge Daniel W. Comstock Endorsed by Republicans of Wayne Co.

The resolution, indorsing the candidacy of Judge Daniel W. Comstock for the Republican nomination as representative to congress from the Sixth Indiana district, passed at the Comstock rally at Richmond follows:

Be it resolved by the Republicans of Wayne county, Indiana, in convention assembled, that the Sixth Congressional District of Indiana should and must be redeemed from Democracy. To that end, we recognize that it is necessary that this county be carried by a re-united Republican party and thus give to said party its old time majority.

Be it further resolved that in the Hon. Daniel W. Comstock we recognize the man who can and will restore the harmony that is necessary to the success of the party. He is a man of high mental and moral attainments. He has served his country patriotically as a soldier in the Civil war; his state and county, as a legislator and a jurist of dignity and learning. There is no blot upon his character, private or public. There is no clique nor faction against him other than the Democratic party. His learning, legislative experience and legal attainments will at once give him recognition and high standing in the house of representatives. His record as a public official is such as to commend him to the peoples' cause in matters of national legislation.

Therefore, we, the Republicans of Wayne county, do hereby most heartily indorse the candidacy of the Hon. Daniel W. Comstock for representative in congress from this district and earnestly ask the other counties of the district to give us their aid in securing his nomination. We pledge them an old fashioned Republican majority in Wayne county if he is nominated.

Our Automatic Dry Rooms

To dry your clothes we hang them upon an endless moving belt which carries them into the steam heated drying cabinet; and after so many times across, it brings them out and automatically drops them, dry and clean, into the basket placed to receive them.

Our dry room is heated by steam pipes and the hot air is kept in constant motion by fans, the damp air being forced out, and pure, clean air admitted continually.

This method of drying insures the freedom of your clothes from dust and dirt of the street, from smoke and grime, etc.—and makes them as sweet and fresh as if dried out of doors.

We keep our dry rooms, as well as our entire plant, clean and sanitary by a thorough cleaning daily.

Brandeis' Appointment

While simple-minded souls were bombarding the President with suggestions that he appoint William H. Taft to the Supreme Court—this on the assumption that Mr. Wilson's famous "open mind" was in operation—the President, without consulting anyone, nominated Louis D. Brandeis for the position.

No one will question Mr. Brandeis' intellectual power, though he is not of the mental type that one instinctively associates with the idea of the courts; but he was not named on account of his intellect. Neither was he chosen on geographical considerations. New England and Massachusetts already have one member of the Court in Justice Holmes. The Eastern States are represented by Justice Hughes of New York and Pitney of New Jersey. The South has Chief Justice White of Louisiana and Justice McReynolds of Texas. The Northwest has Justice Van Devanter of Wyoming; and the Pacific Coast has Justice McKenna of California. While the great central West has Justice Day of Ohio. Thus from Ohio to Wyoming on the one side, to Louisiana on the other a vast section of the country has no representative on the highest bench. A few days before the President took action it was reported, seemingly on authority, that the new justice would come from the Middle West and would be a Democrat. He comes, fact, from New England—and he was not regarded as a good enough Democrat to have a portfolio in the Cabinet when Mr. Wilson took office.

It has been freely charged that this appointment was made from considerations of pure—or impure—politics. We would like to think this charge without foundation. But there is much collateral evidence to support it. If true, it means that, for the first time since John Adams named the famous "midnight judges" a century ago, our highest tribunal has been made to serve as the instrument of a partisan President in a moment of partisan desperation.

Print Prices Soar.

(Newcastle Times.)

Last week this office received a revised list of prices for all grades of paper, revised upward, of course. This week followed a notice withdrawing quotations and advising that another raise might be expected. Every day brings similar notices. Cotton rags that enter into writing papers have advanced from two to five cents a pound. Sulphite, formerly two cents, now four cents a pound, is used for bleaching. Soda ash from 65 cents per hundred pounds to $3 per hundred. Alum that used to sell at one cent is now three cents a pound. Casein, six cents, is now 20 cents.

Aniline colors used in all red inks and red of pink papers that formerly sold at 25 cents to one dollar a pound, is now $10 a pound for the cheapest and $30 for the best grades, with an average of $20 a pound for what was formerly purchased at 50 cents. When you order printing stay away from red paper or red inks unless you are prepared to pay the price. Type has gone up 25 per cent. and some of it 75 per cent.

We are authorized to announce the name of Charles C. Brown as a candidate for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, subject to the decision of the primary election, March 7, 1916.

Not all these things are imported, but when a concern has more orders than it can fill the inclination is to raise prices, and it seems that a lot of concerns have followed their inclinations. There is so much business and so much money in the country that they know they can get it at almost any price and the paper and type makers never were backward in these matters. The result is that it costs 10 to 30 per cent more to do printing than it did a year ago.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

1794-1848

James Brown Ray, third governor of Indiana, possessed unusual ability, but withal was doubtless the most eccentric of the early governors. Born in Virginia, he read law with General Gano in Cincinnati, and then settled in Brookville, Ind. He entered the State Senate in 1824, and when Ratliffe Boone, Lieutenant Governor resigned, Ray was elected President pro-tempore of the Senate. The following year when Governor Hendricks resigned to enter the United States Senate, Ray became acting governor. At the regular election he was elected governor, and re-elected in 1828, thereby holding the office for seven years. The eccentricity of Governor Ray was frequently commented upon. A tall man, very erect, he wore his hair plaited or wrapped, which hung in a queue. When registering at hotels or on steam-boats he always signed his name, "James Brown Ray, governor of the state of Indiana, and commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy thereof." One of Governor Ray's greatest accomplishments was the negotiation of the treaty with the Miami, and Pottawatomie Indians. In this he vied with Lewis Cass and General John Tipton.

NOAH NOBLE (7)

1794-1844

Noah Noble, fourth governor of the state, and brother of James Noble, may properly be called the Henry Clay of Indiana politics. He was the strongest man within the Whig party, the minority organization in the state, but his antagonism were such that he could never draw from the opposition. His political opponents always preferred any other candidate to him.

* THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE *

Amsterdam (N. Y.) Democrat—The Democrats will promise anything to get into power but experience has shown again and again that they do not keep their pledges.

Burlington, Ia.) Hawkeye—At the present rate it will not be long until it is a high crime for a citizen of the United States to leave its borders.

Sioux Falls (S. D.) State Forum—In the light of the past, it is probable that the President might accomplish more by taking the Senate into his confidence and listening to it from time to time.

Albia (Ia.) Union—Only the European war has partially warded off the hard times that go with a Democratic administration.

Minot (N. D.) Optic-Reporter—The Republican and Progressive parties will likely do a leap-year stunt next June.

Harriman (Tenn.) Record—President Wilson has pursued a very uneven course of cutting and trimming his sails to suit the weather and at the same time has pleased no one particular element.

Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin—It is evident that President Wilson does not attach much importance to the "watchful waiting" policy when it comes to running for offices.

Marion (Ind.) Chronicle—There is no one who would withhold from Woodrow Wilson a full recognition of his worth as a man. As a President, he fails largely on account of his academic training.

Salem (Ore.) Statesman—Those who maintain that the United States should yield all its rights at sea without a struggle, if struggle appears to involve the slightest possibility of an ultimate appeal to arms, are preaching a despicable doctrine.

Rochester (N. Y.) Times—The second term question with President Wilson is whether he can get it.

Little Falls, (Minn.) Transcript—Secretary Lansing seems to be living on the same salary that Bryan couldn't.

Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald—The passing of "Huerta" will remove at least one mote from the presidential eye and perhaps the White House will now become, belatedly, a little clearer.

San Antonio (Tex.) Republic—President Wilson has squandered a great deal of the country's money for junketing trips for his pets.

Uniontown (Pa.) Herald—Champ Clark isn't going to be so bitterly disappointed at not getting the Democratic nomination this year.

Newcastle (Ind.) Courier—The Wilson administration will certainly be up against it if it ever runs out of perfumed note paper.

* RURAL MAIL QUESTION *
* IS NOT SETTLED YET *

It would seem from a contribution to the Richmond Item that the muddle created in Wayne county by the motorization of the rural mail routes is by no means settled though two postoffice inspectors were sent to Richmond and, after a study of the situation, shortened the motor routes and added two routes for horse-drawn vehicles. Here is what Samuel A. Moore has to say in a late issue of the Item concerning the motorized routes:

Would you stop my paper?

Not a question, but a request. My time expires July 1, 1916. Would you stop sending the paper to me, and give balance of time to some family in Richmond who is too poor to read your paper or give to some worthy newsboy the benefit of same? My reason for the request:

Under the Gray-Beck efficiency motorized plan I can't keep up with the news. Feb. 19, I got Thursday's paper. Today, Feb. 21, about 2 p. m. I shall have Friday's paper delivered right at my gate, etc. How am I to know the county news? How am I to know anything about the markets? How am I to know the kind of weather promised by the weather man. (I'll know the kind I had.)

Now, Mr. Editor, I like your paper and have read it a long time, but do you blame me for not wanting a daily paper after it gets like old bread, (stale) before reaching me?

I wished amidst the turmoil and smoke of better mail delivery to be fair, and am slow to anger, but there comes a place where forbearance ceases to be a virtue.

Sometime, in the time to come, (not the sweet bye and bye) but when the Burleson-Gray-Beck, the efficient mail carrier and the motorized system are gathered to the land of their fathers, I aim to have The Item on my reading table. How long must I wait?

EXTREME WEAKNESS AND SUFFERING

Read How Mrs. Goodling got Relief and Strength.

York, Pa.—"I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and found it to be all you say it is. I was so sick that I could not stand at my sink to wash dishes and I could not sit without a pillow under me. I had the doctor every few days but since I have taken the Compound I don't have to send for him. I have had three children and could not raise any of them, but since I have taken the Compound I have a bright baby boy. I advise every suffering woman to try it and get relief. It has done wonders for me."—Mrs. CATHERINE GOODLING, 138 E. King Street, York, Pa.

When a medicine has been successful in bringing health to so many, no woman has a right to say without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." There must be more than a hundred thousand women in this country who, like Mrs. Goodling, have proven what wonders Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can do for weak and ailing women. Try it and see for yourself.

If there are any complications you don't understand, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

March 7, 1916

As it is impossible for me to see everyone personally I take this method of introducing myself to the voters of Rush County, Indiana. I am a farmer, always a staunch and loyal Republican; forty-five years of age, married and with a family. I was trustee for Orange Township for six years, and was elected in 1908. I WAS THE FIRST REPUBLICAN TRUSTEE OF ORANGE TOWNSHIP IN TWENTY YEARS PREVIOUS TO THAT TIME. Said township now has a Democratic Trustee. Have served as administrator for various estates in Rush County. I was Secretary and Treasurer of the Building Committee of the Moscow Christian Church built in 1910, was secretary and treasurer of the Moscow Gas Company for 12 years, and if nominated and elected will give Rush County an economical business administration. I am in favor of good roads and lower taxes.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

See your dentist twice yearly. Use Senreco twice daily.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Vote for "33" Ezekiel M. Jones (better known as "Zeke") a Republican Candidate for Sheriff, from Ripley Township, Rush County, at Primary March 7, 1916.

I have found it absolutely impossible to see all of the voters before the Primary to solicit their support for my candidacy for Republican nomination for Sheriff of Rush County, but I desire to say that I have always been a loyal, staunch and true blue Republican. I live in Ripley Township now and cast my first vote in Rush County for James G. Blaine. I nor any of my immediate family have never held nor asked for any public office nor have I been the nominee for any except that I was a candidate in 1912 for Sheriff of Rush County and withdrew on the fourth ballot in the county delegate convention, and went out and worked my best for the ticket, as I always have done.

FOR REFERENCE to my Republicanism or qualifications for this office I refer you to any business man or bank in Rush county.

I CAN BE ELECTED IF NOMINATED.

My number on ballot will be 33 on all ballots
I thank you in advance for your support, Yours Very Truly,

Ezekiel M. Jones

SHELBYVILLE WINS THE CUP

Having the Edge on Rushville by Playing One Less Game, They Win Final in Tournament.

BEST BASKETBALL OF DAY

Score of 24 to 22 Indicates Fight for Championship — Rushville Eliminates Greensburg.

By a score of 24 to 22 the Rushville team lost the final game of the tournament here Saturday night to Shelbyville. With the game went the championship of the East Central Indiana Athletic association and a fine silver cup.

The contest was a heartbreaker from a Rushville standpoint and the close score is an indication of the fight the two teams engaged in. Shelbyville had the advantage in playing only one game before this final contest, while the final game was the third game of the day for Rushville. This advantage was noticeable toward the end, as the Rushville team was completely worn out.

In the face of these odds the fight of the locals was wonderful and there never was a time when the team quit. Shelbyville won the game and the championship, but the work of the Rushville team will long be remembered. The locals put up their best game and so close was the final score that there was little left for Shelbyville to brag over.

The crowd at the final game packed the gymnasium and the 200 people who were forced to wait in a blinding snow storm for the doors to open were amply repaid. This was the only hitch in the entire tournament. The time for the opening of the doors was never advertised, and in order to get good seats the people went to the gym, as early as seven o'clock. They were forced to wait until 7:30 o'clock and in a night that was one of the worst of the winter. When the doors were opened a near riot resulted as everyone was thoroughly angered and a grand rush followed. No one was hurt, but this was through good fortune.

Shelbyville played a fine guarding game. Harding, Shelbyville's center, was placed against Stoops and he stuck like a leech. Stoops was given very little opportunity at goals with Harding guarding him. The game was a whirlwind affair and so fast was the pace that both teams were forced to take time out towards the close. Several players on both teams were badly battered. Higgins of the Shelbyville team was forced to retire. All of the Rushville boys stuck in the game although all were hardly able to do so.

With two minutes to play and the score standing 22 to 20 in favor of Rushville, Stoops missed two easy chances to score from free throws. This would have placed Rushville to 24 points. A minute later Shelbyville obtained a free throw and made the marker count. A second later a field goal was counted and the game ended by Hall throwing a foul goal, bringing the total up to 24 points.

Shelbyville took an early lead. The Rushville team, while playing hard, had difficulty in locating the basket. At one time in the first half the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of Shelbyville. Then Rushville found the basket and the first half ended 10 to 12 in favor of Shelbyville.

The second half was the same as the first except that play became harder. Each team was so anxious to win that the contest was full of fight. Shelbyville led the way up to the twenty mark and then Rushville took the lead for the first time. At this stage the contest developed into the most exciting ever played on the local floor. Rushville was fighting to escape the first defeat on the home floor, but the task was too big. Despite the loss of the game, the showing of the local team is worthy of praise. Working in the face of big odds, Rushville forced Shelbyville to the limit and the win was the biggest kind of a scratch.

Hall, Shelbyville's guard was the star of his team. The Rushville team had no star, as the team worked and played the best it knew.

In the semi-finals of the basketball tournament Saturday afternoon Rushville had little trouble beating Greensburg, and Shelbyville walked away with Milroy. The scores were: Rushville, 34; Greensburg 16, and Shelbyville, 43, Milroy 19.

It was by virtue of winning these games that Shelbyville and Rushville were entitled to play in the final game. The Shelbyville-Milroy game started out like a real contest, but the pace was too stiff for Milroy and Shelbyville fairly rained goals in the final half. The first half ended 18 to 13 in favor of Shelbyville.

The game was rough, with Shelbyville carrying the fight. Milroy was a worthy opponent at the rough game the first half, but could not hold up. Harding was put out of the game for personal fouls and with this loss Shelbyville seemed to take a spurt. Instead of hurting the team Harding's absence appeared to give them determination and Shelbyville proceeded to pile up the count. It was the largest score made in the entire tournament. Rushville did not have to fight very hard to beat Greensburg. A safe margin at the end of the first half cinched the game for the locals. The score at the end of the first session was 17 to 6. Stoops and Martin made field goals almost at will against Greensburg and the score could have been twice as large had the locals not wanted to save up for the final game. With the game safely stored away, the locals knew they would have to face Shelbyville in the final and the entire team took it easy. This was especially true toward the last.

COLUMBUS LOSES.

The Columbus Commercial was defeated by the Fairview Athletic club's basketball team Saturday night at Fairview, 55 to 48. The score at the end of the first half was 30 to 16 in favor of Columbus. The Commercial are one of the strongest independent teams in the state.

FOUNTAIN TOWN COMING.

The Rushville Independents will meet the fast Fountain Town Independents tomorrow night at the Graham Annex gym. Fountain Town has several Indianapolis players, including Spiegel of Butler and Taylor, an old Purdue varsity guard. They have met Manila on their own floor and lost by a narrow margin. A fast game is assured Rushville fans because the locals have strengthened their defense and perfected several new plays since the Columbus defeat. Rushville is confident of winning.

Example of German Fleet Riding Safely in Kiel Canal Leads to Suggestion Here

SENATOR GIVES REASONS

Would Have Canal Constructed in Chesapeake and Back of Treacherous Coast

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—The example of the German fleet riding safely at anchor in the Kiel canal harbor and picking its own time for combat, was cited today by Senator Saulsbury of Delaware as his reasons for demanding that 49 miles of defensive canals be dug in this country.

The two waterways he proposes one of 75 miles from Chesapeake to Delaware Bay and one from Trenton, N. J., across to Raritan Bay, would provide an inner harbor from the Virginia Capes to the Naragansett Bay. Those defensive projects, in the opinion of military experts, would be equivalent to a large army as a defensive factor. They would enable the American navy to concentrate in safety and force a foe to keep two fleets, each of strength equal to that of the United States fleet, at both the Virginia Capes and off New York harbor, if it attempted a blockade. Such a canal would serve, like a giant moat, as a vast line of defense against land forces, which might attempt to invade the region in which most of the munitions plants and manufacturing concerns of the nation are located.

"The time of greatest danger will be just at the close of the European war," said Senator Saulsbury today. "The nations will be at the height of their military power. What kind of navy and coast defenses we have in 1915 is not one-tenth so important as what we have in 1918. The Chesapeake and Delaware canal, 25 feet deep, would cost but $12,000,000, which is less than we pay for a battleship. Yet it would double the effectiveness of our Atlantic fleet. Besides being a most valuable means of defense, this canal would save commercial shipping hundreds of thousands of dollars a year. Ships to reach Baltimore would not need to round the treacherous Virginia Capes, not to mention the great saving in distance that would be effected. Most naval and transportation men with whom I have talked cannot explain why so obviously a meritorious public improvement has not been put through."

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

As the agreement stated, the losing side will entertain the winners soon at a six o'clock dinner.

Another of the pleasant series of the card games enjoyed by the members of the Monday Bridge was the one this afternoon when the members of that club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Frazee in North Main street. The guests enjoyed the informal gathering together as well as the fascinating card round.

CALICO BALL

Leap Year has been and continues to be the inspiration for some of the gayest balls of the season. Another one is coming on March 17th, when the ladies of the Social Club will entertain with a "Calico Ball." The name speaks for itself and with the hospitality of the ladies added to the insured informality and good time that the name suggests, it promises to reflect credit upon the ladies and pleasure upon their guests.

DINNER PARTY.

In honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Frazee of Louisville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazee entertained a company of friends yesterday at dinner, who joined them in welcoming the guests of honor. The coming spring was suggested in the floral decorations of daffodils, for a huge bouquet of them graced the center of the dining table around which the merry company gathered. Four faultless courses were served during the prettily appointed meal. The guests which formed this party were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Humes Mr. and Mrs. Ben Humes, Robert Humes and Mrs. Fannie Smith.

DINNER SERIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos entertained Saturday evening with a beautiful little dinner party. A bright potted flower made the center of the table attractive for the course dinner that was served. In this pleasant group of guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Huber of Indianapolis Will Inlow, Miss Lucy Inlow, Mrs. Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Harton. A merry evening was spent by this congenial company of guests.

Sunday noon an equally pretty dinner party was given honoring the week-end guests from Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Huber. Another tempting dinner was served and greatly enjoyed. Albert Winship was among the dinner guests.

Another of the series of Elks dances will be given tomorrow evening in the hall, when Mitchell's orchestra will furnish the music.

Miss Henrietta Coleman entertained at a charmingly informal dinner party yesterday noon the Misses Genevieve Brown, Helen Scott and Mary and Nora Sleeth. A pretty potted plant adorned the center of the prettily set table.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. William Matthew were the host and hostess yesterday for several of their intimate friends when they entertained them at noon dinner. At the table, which breathed fragrance with the spring flowers, the guests enjoyed the tempting courses of the dinner, which was served to Mr. and Mrs. Carney Gardner and Mrs. Elmer Miller. The afternoon was equally pleasant as the amiable company enjoyed a chat together.

SUPPER PARTY.

One of the most pleasant features of the basketball tournament for a certain merry crowd of young people was the supper at the home of Bruce Carr, when the boys entertained several of their girl friends, on Saturday evening. The girls added their help in preparing the delicious repast and in doing so a general good time was enjoyed. In this merry crowd which gathered in the beautiful Carr home, were the Misses Mary Louise Bliss, Kathryn Guffin, Lois Reeves, Fae Youll of Indianapolis and Helen Frazee, Bruce Carr, Paul Parrish, Wilbur Cox, William Sexton and Forrest Jones. Immediately after the supper the crowd hurried off to the tournament.

FOR MR. AND MRS. DARNELL

Several delightful farewell parties have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Darnell, who will leave Falmouth soon to make their home west of this city, but perhaps the gayest of these was the surprise yesterday given by fifty of their friends and neighbors. The whole affair was a complete surprise and all the more pleasant for being so, when the crowd burst in upon them with large baskets containing the bountiful dinner which they spread and served in buffet style in the spacious dining room. During the dinner as well as through the afternoon hours, musical numbers were enjoyed and a genial good time was spent. It is a matter of regret for the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Darnell in Falmouth and vicinity that they are leaving soon to make their home elsewhere.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

The seventy-fourth birthday of Mrs. Mary Junken of Arlington, was the cause yesterday for several members of her family to gather from far and near at her home and honor her with an elaborate dinner, which they had brought with them. Another suggestion of their esteem for her was the number of pretty birthday gifts with which she was remembered. A sumptuous dinner was the result of the combined efforts of the guests, none of whom enjoyed the party more than the guest of honor, aside from whom there were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Junken of Reedville and son Guy, of Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Junken of Fairland, Harry Snider of Indianapolis, Miss Ruth Parrish of Carthage, Ed Junken, Mr.

NEW YORK FASHION NOTES

By MARGARET MASON (Written for United Press.)

At odds with the whole world you surely will be

If you don't don the odd looking things that you see.

Now offered as fashionable "dernier cri."

New York, Feb. 28.—The odds and ends of the imminent sartorial season are bound to make both ends meet by making both ends odd. Just which end will be odder were hard to say since though some of the hats are the quintessence of quaintness, so too are some of the low down boots. Where a parasol is the heights of novelty a pair of stockings may sound the depths of originality. A striking hand bag in the hand is offset by a lot of ruff stuff in the neck. Of all the mad conceits of a mad hatter the chap-eau that has a life size chauntaleer, comb wattles and all roosting all over the crown and completely overshadowing the tiny turban brim, is undoubtedly the true poultry of millinery. Another quaint hat is shaped like a broad brimmed sailor with an under brim of straw and the upper part, crown and all, composed of inch wide grossgrain ribbons running from the edge of the brim to the top of the crown in alternating tints of old blue, old rose, yellow, purple and ecru. In the center these ribbons come together in a long tassel of their own fringed lengths. A pair of shoes that absolutely kicks over all traces of conventionality is to be worn with an evening gown of violet net over an embroidered and spangled slip of green taffeta the shade of a tender young crocus shoot. The sensational boots are of violet kid with uppers of green taffeta ornately embroidered in sprays of spangled herbage. Stockings a mass of sequins up to the calf are odd stockings even if they do go in pairs. Another stocking that offers untold but not unwritten possibilities has your name, your favorite motto or pet expression embroidered in script on the instep. Why not have one's first name on the right stocking and last name on the left? Think what a saving this would be of cards. One need only point her toes to be identified. Something new under the sun and over the daughter of Eve is a parasol of greed edged in a vine of artificial rambler roses and leaves. Another one of Chinese yellow drops tiny blue tassels from the tip of each rib and has a tiny necklace of blue beads around the tip of its ferule. For a belle of fashion comes a bell of a bag. It end for a clapper. Undoubtedly this is of silk and is ruffled out in the shape of a bell with a tassel at the top designed for the woman who insists on carrying her rings in her hand bag. Up to her ears in ruffs and chokers of pastel tinted batiste is the Spring maid and for her there is no escape from the cape of white or tinted batiste that starts as a collar and finishes down around the shoulders. It is called a nun collar and is unbecoming to none.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

Decatur, Feb. 28.—If you owned oodles and oodles of money, had a happy home, and was offered a job at fifteen cents an hour for just walking, would you do it? M. F. Frisinger and A. R. Brentlinger did. One is a prominent and wealthy horseman, a candidate for a county office, and the other is principal of a school. They walked to Monroe and return, twelve miles, made the trip in three hours and collected forty-five cents each from Marsh Burdge, who employed them to walk for him. Burdge made the offer as a bluff, but they called his bluff.

OFFENSIVE CRUMBLES

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 28.—The German offensive on a 25-mile front north and northeast of Verdun is now crumbling in a series of local actions according to dispatches received here this afternoon.

Harry Deweiss underwent an operation Sunday at his home south of the city.

Amusements

The Princess offers the five reel feature "The Family Cupboard," for the program tonight. The play is based on the well-known Brady stage success of the same name. Holbrook Blinn plays the leading character in the story, a man who leads a double life, simply because his home life is uncongenial. Father and son discover that they are wasting their lives on a worthless object and reform. The family cupboard is cleared of its skeleton. Mr. Blinn's part is a strong one, and he does it the amplest justice. Miss Frances Nelson supports him in this play. Tomorrow night the three act drama "The Woman with a Rose" will be shown.

The Mystic offers the usual four reels for tonight. The first is a two act drama "The Law of Love." The second is a one act comedy entitled "His Last Wish." The program will end with a comedy "Tale of a Tire."

At the Shubert Murat Theatre for two nights, commencing Tuesday, March 7th, with a matinee on Wednesday, local theatregoers will have the first opportunity of seeing a New York Winter Garden production direct from Broadway. In this instance, "A World of Pleasure," the latest and most extravagant production ever staged at the famous New York Theatre, comes straight to the Shubert Murat with the original cast of 150 people.

Massiveness, gorgeousness and loveliness best described this latest creating from the home of national musical revenues. There are two acts and six times as many scenes, which once the curtain rises upon the first vision of magnificent scenery and fashionably attired girls, whose beauty has been the talk of New York for months, the audience cannot help but awe at the pretentiousness of it all.

In "A World of Pleasure" many happy mediums have been met, both from a scenic standpoint and the even balancing of the cast. Comedy, as far as the cast is concerned, is always the keynote, and in "A World of Pleasure" there are such capital entertainers as Clifton Crawford, Conroy & LaMaire, Margaret Edwards, Collins & Hart, Franklin Batie, McMahon, Diamond Chaplow, Vonita Fitzhugh, Helen Goff, Emily Miles, Aveling & Lloyd, Winona Wilkens, Emily Schaefer, the famous Rosie Quinn, and more than 125 others, comprising the supreme beauty chorus of the world.

Never in the history of the Winter Garden has a production left that theatre in such a world of glory, nor has a production met with greater approval by both public and press. This gigantic entertainment is proclaimed the biggest achievement in musical comedy in the last decade.

Orders are now being taken for this attraction.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin.

MAKE OVER $150.

Over a hundred and fifty dollars has been cleared by the Dramatic Club of the Gings high school during the last few weeks, when they have been playing "From Sumpter to Appomattox" in the surrounding towns, including Orange, Falmouth, Kennard, Shelbyville, Glenwood and Gings. Saturday evening they played in Raleigh, next Saturday in Mays, and in Arlington at some future date. The money cleared will be used for the purchase of a piano in the high school. In the cast are F. E. Sutton, Donald Foster, Edward Bell, Richard McManus, Vern Bell, Charlie Hiers and the Misses Marie Kizer and Millie Vandament.

"THE NATIONAL PERIL"

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil-food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

pointing viewers. L. A. Kline of Waterloo township, Fayette county and William A. Posey of this county were appointed viewers and they ordered to report on March 20. Adolphus Cameron, county engineer, was appointed engineer for the road.

The petition asks for a gravel highway and the petitioners are confident that the viewers will report favorably. There is another petition in circulation asking for the improvement of the same road from Falmouth on northward to the county line. This improvement affects Washington township, Rush county and Posey township, Fayette county. It was stated today that enough signers had already been secured and that the petition would be presented at the next regular meeting of the Rush county board. If this petition and the one already under consideration goes through it will make a road of some twelve miles in length.

The county council had difficulty getting a quorum and as a result the meeting scheduled for this morning was postponed until late this afternoon. The county council was awaiting the arrival of Rolle Zorne from Gings and it was expected that the meeting would start shortly after three o'clock. The council at this session is expected to make an appropriation for a new roof for the court house in addition to some bridge appropriations. Both of these appropriations will amount to $15,000 or over and to make both the council will have to be in session again Tuesday.

of further consideration. There is a postal statute which provides that no motor vehicle may be used without special permit from postal authorities, and since the action at Washington is unfavorable toward the motor plan, this statute, no doubt, will remain unchanged. It was passed so that only horse-drawn vehicles could be used, thereby making the time spent on a rural delivery extend until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, rather than to permit of motor vehicles making the same trip in four hours or less.

FIGHT ON SUGAR IS PROMISED

Congress in Throes of Tariff Battle as Democrats Now Want Duty to Remain

GREAT SOURCE OF REVENUE

President Favors "Free Sugar," But Some of Leaders Are Opposed to it at This Time.

By BOND F. GEDDES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Congress today is in the throes of another tariff fight. Partisan politics is at fever heat. Lobbyists are busy. The American sugar bowl is the cause. "Free sugar," is the battle cry.

Repeal of the clause in the new Wilson-Underwood tariff act which would place sugar on the free list, removing about 1 per cent a pound duty, on May 1 is the proposal causing the turmoil. The result has far-reaching effect on the American and foreign sugar growing and refining industries, as well as on the price the people shall pay to fill their sugar bowls.

Initiated in the House by Democratic Leader Kitchin, the resolution proposing that the present duty of approximately 1 cent a pound shall be continued on sugar is an administration measure, urged by President Wilson in his opening message to Congress last December. Because of declining revenues caused by the war, the President asked that the free sugar schedule be rescinded. The Kitchin resolution provides for its outright repeal and not its indefinite suspension.

The administration leaders in Congress today are contending that the war makes necessary continuance of sugar duties, probably the biggest single source of custom duty revenues. In 1915, the net revenue from sugar was $45,000,000. The Democrats contend that but for the war, with its disturbance of commerce and curtailment of customs receipts, the treasury would not have needed the sugar revenue.

On the other hand, the Republicans are loudly proclaiming that the Democrats are admitting and rectifying a serious error in their tariff revision of 1913 when they passed the Wilson-Underwood bill. Both political factions are making the utmost capital of this situation for this year's presidential campaign purposes.

The present 1-cent-a-pound duty is about 1-2 cent less than that of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act. The Wilson-Underwood bill proposed to take off the tariff piecemeal, leaving free sugar to become effective May 1.

Many Democrats are opposing outright repeal, urging instead, indefinite suspension of the free sugar proviso, so that when war conditions become adjusted sugar can be made duty free without cumbersome legislation. They also believe such a course would minimize republican charges that they admit having made a basic error.

Republicans in both the Senate and House are for the Democratic resolution to continue the present duty. But they insist first on taunting the Democrats for the alleged mistake.

Passage of the duty-continuing resolution, with both parties voting for it, is regarded assured eventually after a long wordy war.

Tariff experts say the repeal of free sugar will not affect present retail prices to the consumer. Effect of partial tariff reduction already has been felt, they declare.

But a big revival in the American sugar industry, both cane and beet, is expected to result from continuing the present duty. With the 1-cent-a-pound protection, Louisiana cane growers, who put their cane fields into other crops when the sugar schedule was revised downward, are reported planting new crops. Increased acreage of sugar beets and more production in western beet sugar factories is also expected.

Political effects are bound up in the sugar question. Following the Louisiana cane growers' declaration that "free sugar" would ruin them, a Progressive congressman was elected last year from that rock-bound Democratic state.

An interesting story, is told in connection with the sugar tariff. President Wilson himself, it is said, was most insistent upon making sugar duty free. Senator Underwood then House leader, bitterly opposed it, but at the President's behest finally wrote the "free sugar" clause in the bill. Then it was estimated the indirect tax burden upon consumers would be reduced $115,000,000 a year. Whether the refiners or the consumers would benefit by the reduced tariff has been and is still a point of partisan debate.

LIFE IS BRIGHT AFTER 15 YEARS

Mrs. Amanda Platt of Muncie, At-tributes Recent Relief to Tanlac.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Amanda Platt, a well known Muncie woman, who lives at 808 South Elm street, after fifteen years' suffering, has found a relief from the severe pains caused by rheumatism. Mrs. Platt recently said, regarding her experiences with Tanlac, "the Master Medicine":

"I am so happy, for I know I have at last succeeded in getting rid of the terrible pain I had to endure for so long. Never during all the time that I was sick could I sleep on my left side because of the pain when my body touched the side of the bed. It would be impossible for me to describe my former suffering."

"I also had stomach trouble and was annoyed by my stomach filling with gas. My appetite, also, was poor."

"Since taking Tanlac I feel like a woman made over again. The change in my condition is the most wonderful thing in my life. The rheumatism pains are gone, my appetite has returned, and I sleep soundly. Life, again, has become bright to me."

Not only for rheumatism and stomach trouble, as in Mrs. Platt's case, is Tanlac beneficial, but for liver and kidney troubles, nervousness, insomnia and the like, it is excellent, also.

Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. WOLCOTT'S drug store.

FAILURE IN SIGHT

(By United Press.)

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 28.—This is seed corn week in Iowa. Following a wet, cold summer the corn crop was a partial failure and examination of seed corn has shown that a surprising amount of it will not germinate. So alarmed are the experts, bankers and agricultural editors that they convinced Gov. Geo. W. Clarke that Iowa faced another bad corn year, this time from a light crop because of poor seed corn, and he has designated this week as "Seed Corn Week" during which every farmer is urged to test his seed corn. In northern Iowa counties it is estimated that at least half of the seed corn is poor and thousands of bushels will be imported from the southwest.

"These are impressive words," said a high official of the foreign office today as he read press versions of the Wilson letter.

"Will Germany reply to those statements?" he was asked.

"President Wilson could not have had our data regarding British instructions to merchantmen to attack submarines when he wrote this letter."

"Surely, by arming merchantmen and instructing them to take the offensive against submarines, the allies violate international law first, thereby endangering American lives," he declared.

Germany counts upon the American congress to force a backdown from President Wilson in the controversy over armed merchantmen. Officials here refused to comment for publication but the general feeling is that if the matter is referred to congress, a resolution will be put through warning Americans not to take passage on belligerent armed ships.

The belief is expressed by the Berlin press that President Wilson does not want congress to take a hand, fearing that debate over the question may imbitter American opinion.

Though reports that a majority in question may force President Wilson to yield to Germany have aroused hope for a peaceful settlement, the German attitude is daily growing more tense. Not only the public but officials are frankly bitter in their criticism of President Wilson for refusing to warn Americans off belligerent armed merchantmen.

LABOR WILL PLAY BIG PART

England Expects Big Things Following The War

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 28.—The belief that labor will figure extensively in British government counsels when peace is restored in Europe is gaining ground steadily. "After the war is over," said Lord Denman, for example, in an address in the house of peers, "labor is bound to play a very prominent part in the political life of this country. It is possible that a labor government or a government largely composed of labor men will be in power." The ex-governor-general of Australia qualified his prediction with the remark that "if labor men now fail to rise to the full height of their responsibilities and to realize that they are Englishmen first and trade unionists second, and if they hamper administration of the military compulsion act, it seems to me their advent to power will be delayed for many years."

Mrs. L. R. Bishop of northeast of the city, who was operated on at Sexton's sanatorium Saturday of last week is doing nicely.

OVERWHELMING VICTORY SOUGHT

Kaiser Using All His Resources For Ten-Strike to End The World War, It is Said

VERDUN ATTACK PRELUDE

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 28.—With all the resources at his command, the Kaiser is now striking for an immediate and overwhelming German victory and planned to end the world war.

The German onslaught started against Verdun is but the prelude to a grand assault by the Germans along the whole western front—the most tremendous defensive movement the world has ever seen.

Prince Henry of Prussia has taken over a high command in the German navy, preliminary to the beginning of the new submarine campaign against armed merchantmen.

ARE INCENSED BY ANONYMOUS ATTACK

Republicans Here Angered by Receipt of Unsigned Pamphlet Attacking Watson

FROM ROOM 425, CLAYPOOL

Republicans here were angered today by the receipt of an anonymous attack on James E. Watson, candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination, sent out from Room 425, Claypool hotel, Indianapolis. They were not accusing Harry S. New followers, but they are mighty suspicious because New's headquarters are at the Claypool, and many thought in room 425.

The anonymous attack dealt with James E. Watson's race for governor in 1908, developing the fact mainly that he ran behind Taft in Indiana. This question was raised by a correspondent to the Indianapolis Star some time ago and another correspondent replied with the showing that practically all Republican candidates for governor in 1908 ran behind Taft. It was also shown that Watson's campaign was hindered by the county option issue, which was settled in the middle of his campaign by a special session of the legislature called by Hanly.

Republican were incensed most by the declaration in the anonymous pamphlet that Watson could not be elected if nominated.

TIME FOR MORTGAGE EXEMPTION IS NEAR

May be Filed Any Time During March on One-Half Assessed Value of The Property

THEY MUST NOT EXCEED $700.

The time for the annual filing of mortgage exemptions is drawing near and many Rush county property owners are again preparing to take advantage of the statute.

The law provides that any property owner against whose property there is a mortgage may file an exemption on the mortgage. The exemption allowed is one-half the assessed value of the property up to $700. No exemption can be for a greater sum than $700. Exemptions may be made out by any notary public. The time for the filing of mortgage exemptions is from March 1 until April 30 each year. Usually between 3,000 and 4,000 exemptions are filed in Rush county each year.

A. B. IRVIN TAKES A RIDE IN HYDROPLANE

Writes That he Was up Ten Minutes at West Palm Beach, Fla., Traveling 50 Miles an Hour

"COST $20; WORTH THE MONEY"

Ben Sparks has a letter from A. B. Irvin, who is at West Palm Beach, Florida, saying that he went up in a hydroplane for ten minutes. He was one thousand feet high and traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

"It cost twenty dollars for ten minutes," writes Mr. Irvin, "but it was worth the money."

Mr. Irvin has always said that he intended to buy an areoplane when they were perfected so that they were comparatively safe. In order to uphold his past record, Mr. Irvin will have to buy an airship. He owned the first bicycle and first automobile ever in Rushville. He had the first telephone here and also purchased the first dictophone and the first adding machine ever in use in this city.

sions of the statute," according to a local man, who states that many people have the idea that the exemptions must be filed by March 15, whereas the law gives until April 30 for the filing. Some people, have the idea that the exemption must be for $700 whereas the exemption may be for any amount under that sum, providing the exemption is not more than half as great as the assessed value of the property.

FOUR SETS OF VIEWERS NAMED

Commissioners Act Favorably on as Many Road Petitions Before Them Today

THREE IN THIS TOWNSHIP

Whether First, Eleventh Street And New Salem Pike Are Paved Depends on Viewers

COUNTY LINE ROAD ALSO

Joint Meeting of Fayette And Rush Boards Results in Favorable Action on Highway

The improvement of First street under the three-mile road law and the construction of two permanent highways by constructing the roadway of brick or concrete are now up to the viewers, and whether the roads are constructed depends largely on their report.

Road men, mostly brick and concrete advocates, thronged the commissioners room today, all seeking to see that the improvement go through. The commissioners acted first on the First street paving petition by appointing John Spencer and George W. McBride as the viewers and Adolphus Cameron as engineer.

As was expected, the petitioners made good their word to the city council and changed the petition so that the street would be paved with brick instead of concrete. The petition was also amended so that the road will end at Hodges branch instead of at Will L. King Corner. The First street petitioners believe this is a step towards a final victory for them, as they think that the viewers will report favorable under the amended petition. No time has been set for the viewers to report.

The commissioners appointed Dr. Charles Smullen and Oliver J. Cook as viewers for the Dr. Frank Green, et al. highway. This road has been pending before the commissioners since Jan. 8, 1914. It is proposed to pave the highway with concrete. The road starts at the corner of Main and Eleventh streets and extends northeast along the Fort Wayne road to the T. J. Humes farm.

The third road upon which action was taken was the Frank Capp, et al. highway. This road starts in Jersey City and continuing along the New Salem pike for a distance of three miles with concrete. The viewers appointed were Fred Lihbfoot and Jess W. Peters. Cameron is the engineer in all of the roads.

At the joint session of the commissioners of this county and the commissioners of Fayette county the petition asking for the improvement of the road from Glenwood to Falmouth was acted upon by appointment.

ATTEMPT TO TAKE LIFE IS FAILURE

Charles R. Rasor, Manager of Gem Theater Tries Suicide, Bullet Missing Heart.

DESPONDENCY IS THE CAUSE

Physician Says he Has Chance to Recover--Worried Over Own And Father's Illness.

Charles R. Rasor, 28 years old, manager of the Gem theater, attempted suicide Sunday afternoon by shooting himself, at his home, corner of First and Morgan streets. The bullet missed his heart by a narrow margin and it was stated today that he had more than an equal chance of recovering.

Despondency and ill health are said to have been the cause of his act. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin W. Rasor, and with his wife, they all live together in the residence at First and Morgan street. Mr. Rasor's father has been ill for several weeks, suffering from pneumonia. He himself had been ill for some time and worry over his own condition and that of his father is believed to have weighed so heavily on his mind that he became temporarily insane.

About one-thirty o'clock Sunday afternoon the family received the first intimation of the near tragedy when they heard the shot. Rushing into his bedroom they made the discovery. A physician was called immediately. An examination showed that the bullet had passed through his body and missed his heart about an inch. Unless complications develop he is expected to recover. The revolver was of .38 caliber.

The picture show has been operated by the father and son, and when both became sick, Charles Rasor tried to keep the business going. Last week he seemed to improve, but could not keep from worrying. Last Friday he remarked to one friend that "he felt as though he was going to cash in any time." Following the shooting and after he had recovered from the first shock, he is said to have remarked to relatives that he had planned the day before just how he was going to die and had worked out all the details.

From this it will be seen that he had contemplated the act. The attempted suicide came as a surprise to those who know him. While he was of a nervous disposition it was not believed that his troubles were of such a magnitude as to drive him to suicide. The Rasors came here from Piqua, Ohio, about two years ago. Charles Rasor was married to Miss Agnes Higgs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Higgs, on January 6th.

FIX SCHEDULE OF ASSESSMENT

Township Assessors Agree on Values at Which Farm Personal Property Will be Taken.

AUTOMOBILES NOT IN THE LIST

Mortgages, Money and Notes Will be Assessed at 75 per cent Face Value as Usual.

The township assessors, at their meeting with the county assessor, Henry W. Schrader, Saturday, agreed on a schedule for the coming assessing period, which begins Wednesday and lasts for seventy-five days.

Mortgages, money and notes will be taken at seventy-five per cent of their face value, the same as they were last year. No agreement could be reached as to additional improvements on real estate because they are purely estimate work. Real estate is appraised only every four years. Last year was the time for doing that work.

County Assessor Schrader read the letter from the state board of tax commissioners to the township assessors. The state board asked that all personal property be appraised at its true cash value and then twenty-five per cent can be deducted for purposes of equalization. The state board said that the deduction should not be made under any consideration unless the real cash value was the basis of the assessment.

"We expect to follow the instructions of the state board of tax commissioners fully," said the county assessor. "We did that last year and had an excellent report. The state board was well pleased with it."

Mr. Schrader said it was impossible to agree on a fixed value for automobiles because there are so many varieties, both good and indifferent. He stated today that the appraised value of machines would likely be from fifty dollars up and that the appraisement would be left to the individual assessor.

The following schedule for farm personal property was agreed upon: Horses under one year of age, $25 to $50; one and over, $50 to $90; two and over, $75 to $100; three and over, $125 and up; cattle under one year of age, $10 to $25; one year and over, $25 and up; two years and over, six cents a pound; three years and over, six cents a pound; sheep, $4 to $6 per head; stock hogs, seven cents a pound; young brood sows, $10 to $15 a head; old brood sows, $12 to $20 per head; wheat per bushel, $1.00; corn per bushel, 50c; rye per bushel, 60c; oats per bushel, 30c; timothy seed, per bushel, $2; clover seed, per bushel, $9; hay, per ton, $8 to $10; pork per pound, ten cents; lard per pound, ten cents.

CHANGE OF MOTOR ROUTES SMALL

Recent Action of House Making Majority Petition Necessary Dims Prospects.

MAY BE UP TO THE PATRONS

Probable Prospective Changes, Including Rush, Will be Held up Pending Senate Action.

Chances of the rural routes of Rush county being motorized have been considerably lessened by the action of the house of representatives last week in passing an amendment to the postoffice appropriation bill and incidentally the opportunity of putting out of the service rural carriers who are not in sympathy with the present national administration were dimmed.

Wayne has been experiencing great difficulty from the motorized system. Many complaints regarding the service were made—so many in fact that two postoffice inspectors were rushed to Richmond to straighten out the tangle. Revision of the routes and addition of some more motor routes and two horse-vehicle routes was the method to help matters temporarily. Rush county was said to be on the schedule for a change not so far distant.

The motor route plan was defeated by having an amendment made to the postoffice appropriation bill which provides that no part of the money appropriated for rural mail delivery may be spent for motor vehicle routes until a majority of the patrons of the route shall have petitioned the postoffice department for motor service.

What effect such legislation will have on the new motor routes scheduled for this and other counties in Indiana for April and May is not to be conjectured at this time, but it is thought that the order creating these routes will be held up temporarily until the senate acts on the appropriation bill and its amendment.

Since the amendment provides that motor service may not be put in until a petition has been presented by a majority of patrons on any route, it is now morally certain that the service in Marion county, as well as in Wayne and other counties, will be held up indefinitely. Despite reports to the contrary, many objections have been registered by rural residents in this and other counties, both from the fact of delayed deliveries, and, in many instances, from being left off the new routes.

Dispatches from Washington say that Representative Wood of Lafayette, and Gray of Connersville, were prominent in the fight against motor service and both voted for the amendment. Wood made a speech against the plan, saying that the motor routes never had been satisfactory since they had been adopted in Tippecanoe county, and Gray made the same statement as to Wayne county.

The civil service rules permit of a scheme if placed in use, which eventually would bring into the service only men of the predominating political party. For instance, should a vacancy be announced, the civil service commission has the right to select from the three names leading the list of eligibles. Should one of these men be of the ruling political party, he may be selected regardless of the fact that the two others might hold better grades from examinations. The second and third vacancies may be filled in the same manner, and, in that event, the two who have not been selected, then pass out.

Ambassador Bernstorff Lays Before Lansing Memorandum Reiterating Previous Intention

WILL TAKE EFFECT MARCH 1

Bernstorff Shows Original British Order Instructing Vessels to Destroy Them

(By United Press.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Ambassador Bernstorff today laid before Secretary Lansing a memorandum received from the Berlin foreign office containing a reiteration of Germany's intention to torpedo armed merchantmen without warning, beginning Wednesday.

Neither Lansing nor Bernstorff would comment, but it was learned the memorandum contained a score of reports of German submarine commanders that armed British merchantmen had used their arms offensively when the submarine tried to stop them. It contained references to alleged secret admiralty orders giving instructions to British merchantmen to attack and destroy submarines.

It became known today for the first time that Bernstorff recently gave Secretary Lansing the original copy of what he said were such orders found on the Appam, captured by a German raider.

Baron Zwiedinek, Austrian charge, also called on Lansing but left no memorandum. He said Austria's attitude was the same as Germany's.

Secretary Lansing today conferred with Ambassador Bernstorff at 11:30. Ambassador Bernstorff conferred with Baron Zwiedinek, Austrian charge, before going to the state department. The latter expected also to see Secretary Lansing during the day.

At the German embassy it was made clear that no postponement of the decree due to go into effect tomorrow midnight is expected there.

TO GIVE WARNING BEFORE ATTACK

German Submarines Will Not Attack Passenger Liners Without Notifying Them

NOT ENDANGER HUMAN LIFE

Possible Diplomatic Break With United States Receives Consideration in Berlin

FEELING IN BERLIN TENSE

Germans Now Appreciate Situation Since They Have Read President's Letter to Stone

By CARL W. ACKERMAN

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.) Berlin, (Via Amsterdam), Feb. 28. German submarines will torpedo no passenger liners without warning even after the new order against armed merchantmen goes into effect at midnight Tuesday, the United Press was reliably informed today.

Furthermore, submarine commanders will endanger human life only in case a steamer attempts to escape, to fire on the submarine, or to ram her. This was the last word given out here today, with the beginning of the U-boat campaign against armed merchantmen a few hours off. The statement was made while the officials were still contemplating the impressive utterances of President Wilson in his letter to Chairman Stone of the senate foreign relations committee.

As the hour for the inauguration of the new campaign approaches, the question of a possible diplomatic break with the United States is receiving greater consideration here.

Officials and the public alike frankly admit today that America's attitude is unfriendly. In their new campaign, the United Press was informed, U-boat commanders will act under these instructions:

They will not torpedo every ship encountered, trusting to prove later that they were armed.

They will not violate instructions previously given to warn passenger liners.

They will not endanger human lives, unless the ships attempt to escape, to ram the attacking submarine, or to fire on her.

In short the difference between the past and the present, as regards passengers liners, is that in the future armed liners will not be considered legitimate peaceful trading ships.

It can be stated definitely that Germany, by the new regulations, is not courting trouble with America. But if some future accident endangers America or causes American losses, Germany will be convinced that the responsibility will not rest with her, because she has fully warned Americans publicly, and the American government officially.

President Wilson's letter to Senator Stone, first published here yesterday, has caused a sensation in government circles and in the American colony. I visited the foreign office, the admiralty office and the offices of Berlin editors. The Wilson letter has had the effect of a thunderbolt out of a clear sky.

German leaders are surprised that President Wilson has coupled the controversy over armed merchantmen with the question of America's personal honor.

President Wilson's letter to Chairman Stone has suddenly brought full realization to German officials that the situation between Germany and the United States has reached a serious stage.

laboring Man Says Watson Is Man Of Common People

Declaring that James E. Watson of this city, candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination in Indiana, is a man of the common people who is unaffected by office-holding, Charlie Lutz, 1605 East Kirby Avenue, Muncie, Ind., has contributed the following to the Muncie Press:

To the Voters of Eastern Indiana:

There are times when forbearance ceases to be a virtue and this seems to be one of those times from a political standpoint. I am not an educated man and have no experience in newspaper writing. I justify the infliction of this article on the public on the ground that the motive is right and the causes sufficient.
As a laboring man I am interested in the prosperity of our common country and prosperity is very largely dependent on a protective tariff and a protective tariff is dependent on Republican success. The present prosperity is largely imaginary. Only those having war munitions and war necessities are prosperous. It is temporary only and may vanish in a night. It is not the result of Democratic legislation, but is wholly based on murder, rapine, and the suffering of children and widows of Europe and will not last,
and the Democratic party only dis-credits itself by claiming credit for such a prosperity.

After the present war ceases then will surely come a time when this country will need brainy, able, experienced men in the United States Senate. Many and various subjects and questions will confront congress.
The Senate will be no place for millionaires and mere chair warmers.
It will be the time and the immediate time, for broad statesmanship and the exercise of prompt and vigorous action on the tariff. It will not do to simply appoint a tariff commission at an immense expense and permit it to go junketing in Europe for two years at the government's expense and during that time
Congress to remain inactive on tariff legislation. For the reason that Europe, with its starving millions of laborers, will work them so cheaply and manufacture at such an insignificant cost, and it owning and controlling 90 per cent of the shipping facilities, will ship its products into this country by millions of tons and undersell our manufacturers in every competitive line, while your tariff commission is yet junketing and having a good time.

Then there will be no work for our laborers and no market for our products and then what? The answer is apparent, our mills will close and our laborers will be idle.

and then want, misery and trouble will ensue; business will be stagnated, disturbed discouraged, and bankruptcy will inevitably follow in very many cases.

All of which leads one to the conclusion that in choosing a candidate for senator, it is well to consider first, his qualifications. Second, his ability and third, his experience, and when one does this,
Hon. James E. Watson is at once suggested as the one best choice.
He has the experience, energy, character and ability. He is the most brilliant orator in this country and a man with a national reputation as a wise and safe statesman who has never been afflicted with "swelled head." If he meets you and knows you he invariably salutes you with a hearty—How are you Jim or Joe or Bill? or what ever your name happens to be, and he delights in being called just "Jim." No "Mr."
necessary. When he comes to town it is his pleasure to walk out on the streets and greet his friends, which he does, and he hunts them up.

I remember being in Washington
once at a K. of P. national convention. Mr. Watson was then a congressman from the Sixth congressional district and a noted man in the House and a member of the great ways and means committee. A bunch of us clodhoppers wanted to see the Capitol and White House and meet the President. We went to the Capitol and sent a note in to Jim Watson that stated "that a bunch of Hoosiers were lost and wanted to be shown the way." In five minutes Jim Watson was among us shaking hands right and left regardless of the fact that we were not from his district and some of the bunch were Democrats. They were Hoosiers and that was enough for Jim. In less than one-half hour he knew every man's name and called him by it and he was thereafter addressed as "Jim." He took us all through the Capitol and White House and introduced us to the President and for three days made us enjoy our Washington visit.

Two years after that I was going down a street in Muncie dressed in overalls and working garb with a pick and shovel on my shoulder,
when I heard someone call "Hello Charlie," and turning I found no less personage than Jim Watson. He had not forgotten me and was not too stuck up to greet a poor common laborer, and remember he, was not running for office either. A man with that disposition is a friend of the people and regardless of the 2x4 politicians and cheap slanderers, he gets my vote March 7, 16.

WHY not give your lad the same training?

"When I was a growing lad, and came upon many words in my reading that I did not understand, my mother, instead of giving me the definition when I applied to her, uniformly sent me to the dictionary to learn it, and in this way I gradually learned many things besides the meaning of the individual word in question—among other things, how to use a dictionary, and the great pleasure and advantage there might be in the use of the dictionary.
Afterwards, when I went to the village school, my chief diversion, after lessons were learned and before they were recited, was in turning over the pages of the 'Unabridged' of those days. Now the most modern Un-abridged—the NEW INTERNATIONAL—gives me a pleasure of the same sort.
So far as my knowledge extends, it is at present the best of the one-volume dictionaries, and quite sufficient for all ordinary uses. Even those who possess the splendid dictionaries in several volumes will yet find it a great convenience to have this, which is so compact, so full, and so trustworthy as to leave, in most cases, little to be desired."—Albert S. Cook, Ph.D., LL.D.,

SEVEN STEAMERS GO DOWN

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 28.—Revised figures show that 169 persons, including 55 passengers, are missing and probably lost in the sinking of the Peninsular and Oriental liner Maloja.

The Maloja was one of seven steamers which were sunk by Tue-ton submarines, fire and mines of the various belligerent nations. They were of a total gross tonnage of 25,000, four of them being British, one Swedish, one Dutch and one Norwegian.

The biggest ship sunk during Sunday was the British Peninsular and Oriental liner Maloja, a sister ship of the Persia, which is believed to have struck a mine in the Straits of Dover near the British coast.
The Persia was sunk in the Mediterranean by a submarine Dec. 30, 1915.

The Maloja was a vessel of 12, 431 tons gross and carried approximately 119 passengers and a crew of about 200, mostly Lascars.

Candidacy of Judge Daniel W. Comstock Endorsed by Re- publicans of Wayne Co.

The resolution, indorsing the candidacy of Judge Daniel W.
Comstock for the Republican nomination as representative to congress from the Sixth Indiana district, passed at the Comstock rally at Richmond follows:

Be it resolved by the Republicans of Wayne county, Indiana, in convention assembled, that the Sixth Congressional District of Indiana should and must be redeemed from Democracy. To that end, we recognize that it is necessary that this county be carried by a re-united Republican party and thus give to said party its old time majority.

Be it further resolved that in the Hon. Daniel W. Comstock we recognize the man who can and will restore the harmony that is necessary to the success of the party. He is a man of high mental and moral attainments. He has served his country patriotically as a soldier in the Civil war; his state and county, as a legislator and a jurist of dignity and learning. There is no blot upon his character, private or public. There is no clique nor faction against him other than the Democratic party. His learning, legislative experience and legal attainments will at once give him recognition and high standing in the house of representatives. His record as a public official is such as to commend him to the peoples' cause in matters of national legislation.

Therefore, we, the Republicans of Wayne county, do hereby most heartily indorse the candidacy of the Hon. Daniel W. Comstock for representative in congress from this district and earnestly ask the other counties of the district to give us their aid in securing his nomination. We pledge them an old fashioned Republican majority in Wayne county if he is nominated.

Our Automatic Dry Rooms

To dry your clothes we hang them upon an endless moving belt which carries them into the steam heated drying cabinet; and after so many times across, it brings them out and automatically drops them, dry and clean, into the basket placed to receive them.

Our dry room is heated by steam pipes and the hot air is kept in constant motion by fans, the damp air being forced out, and pure, clean air admitted continually.

This method of drying insures the freedom of your clothes from dust and dirt of the street, from smoke and grime, etc.—and makes them as sweet and fresh as if dried out of doors.

We keep our dry rooms, as well as our entire plant, clean and sanitary by a thorough cleaning daily.

Brandeis' Appointment

While simple-minded souls were bombarding the President with suggestions that he appoint William H. Taft to the Supreme Court—this on the assumption that Mr. Wilson's famous "open mind" was in operation—the President, without consulting anyone, nominated Louis D. Brandeis for the position.

No one will question Mr. Brandeis' intellectual power, though he is not of the mental type that one instinctively associates with the idea of the courts; but he was not named on account of his intellect. Neither was he chosen on geographical considerations. New England and Massachusetts already have one member of the Court in Justice Holmes. The Eastern States are represented by Justice Hughes of New York and Pitney of New Jersey. The South has Chief Justice White of Louisiana and Justice McReynolds of Texas. The Northwest has Justice Van Devanter of Wyoming; and the Pacific Coast has Justice McKenna of California. While the great central West has Justice Day of Ohio. Thus from Ohio to Wyoming on the one side, to Louisiana on the other a vast section of the country has no representative on the highest bench. A few days before the President took action it was reported, seemingly on authority, that the new justice would come from the Middle West and would be a Democrat. He comes, fact, from New England—and he was not regarded as a good enough Democrat to have a portfolio in the Cabinet when Mr. Wilson took office.

It has been freely charged that this appointment was made from considerations of pure—or impure—politics. We would like to think this charge without foundation. But there is much collateral evidence to support it. If true, it means that, for the first time since John Adams named the famous "midnight judges" a century ago, our highest tribunal has been made to serve as the instrument of a partisan President in a moment of partisan desperation.

Print Prices Soar.

(Newcastle Times.)

Last week this office received a revised list of prices for all grades of paper, revised upward, of course. This week followed a notice with drawing quotations and advising that another raise might be expected. Every day brings similar notices. Cotton rags that enter into writing papers have advanced from two to five cents a pound. Sulphite, formerly two cents, now four cents a pound, is used for bleaching. Soda ash from 65 cents per hundred pounds to $3 per hundred. Alum that used to sell at one cent is now three cents a pound. Casein, six cents, is now 20 cents.

Aniline colors used in all red inks and red of pink papers that formerly sold at 25 cents to one dollar a pound, is now $10 a pound for the cheapest and $30 for the best grades, with an average of $20 a pound for what was formerly purchased at 50 cents. When you order printing stay away from red paper or red inks unless you are prepared to pay the price. Type has

Not all these things are imported, but when a concern has more orders than it can fill the inclination is to raise prices, and it seems that a lot of concerns have followed their inclinations. There is so much business and so much money in the country that they know they can get it at almost any price and the paper and type makers never were backward in these matters. The result is that it costs 10 to 30 per cent more to do printing than it did a year ago.

HUNDRED LEADING HOOSIERS

1794-1848

James Brown Ray, third governor of Indiana, possessed unusual ability, but withal was doubtless the most eccentric of the early governors. Born in Virginia, he read law with General Gau in Cincinnati, and then settled in Brookville, Ind. He entered the State Senate in 1824, and when Ratliffe Boone, Lieutenant Governor resigned, Ray was elected President pro-tempore of the Senate. The following year when Governor Hendricks resigned to enter the United States Senate, Ray became acting governor. At the regular election he was elected governor, and re-elected in 1828, thereby holding the office for seven years. The eccentricity of Governor Ray was frequently commented upon. A tall man, very erect, he wore his hair plaited or wrapped, which hung in a queue. When registering at hotels or on steam-boats he always signed his name, "James Brown Ray, governor of the state of Indiana, and commander-in-chief of the Army and Navy thereof." One of Governor Ray's greatest accomplishments was the negotiation of the treaty with the Miami, and Pottawatomie Indians. In this he voted with Lewis Cass and General John Tipton.

NOAH NOBLE (7)

1794-1844

Noah Noble, fourth governor of the state, and brother of James Noble, may properly be called the Henry Clay of Indiana politics. He was the strongest man within the Whig party, the minority organization in the state, but his antagonism were such that he could never draw from the opposition. His political opponents always preferred any other candidate to him.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Amsterdam (N. Y.) Democrat—The Democrats will promise anything to get into power but experience has shown again and again that they do not keep their pledges.

Burlington, Ia.) Hawkeye—At the present rate it will not be long until it is a high crime for a citizen of the United States to leave its borders.

Siox Falls (S. D.) State Forum—In the light of the past, it is probable that the President might accomplish more by taking the Senate into his confidence and listening to it from time to time.

Albia (Ia.) Union—Only the European war has partially warded off the hard times that go with a Democratic administration.

Minot (N. D.) Optic-Reporter—The Republican and Progressive parties will likely do a leap-year stunt next June.

Harriman (Tenn.) Record—President Wilson has pursued a very uneven course of cutting and trimming his sails to suit the weather and at the same time has pleased no one particular element.

Norwich (Conn.) Bulletin—It is evident that President Wilson does not attach much importance to the "watchful waiting" policy when it comes to running for offices.

Marion (Ind.) Chronicle—There is no one who would withhold from Woodrow Wilson a full recognition of his worth as a man. As a President, he fails largely on account of his academic training.

Salem (Ore.) Statesman—Those who maintain that the United States should yield all its rights at sea without a struggle, if struggle appears to involve the slightest possibility of an ultimate appeal to arms, are preaching a respectable doctrine.

Rochester (N. Y.) Times—The second term question with President Wilson is whether he can get it.

Little Falls, (Minn.) Transcript—Secretary Lansing seems to be living on the same salary that Bryan couldn't.

Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald—The passing of Huerta will remove at least one mote from the presidential eye and perhaps the White House will now become, belatedly, a little clearer.

San Antonio (Tex.) Republic—President Wilson has squandered a great deal of the country's money for junketing trips for his pets.

Uniontown (Pa.) Herald—Champ Clark isn't going to be so bitterly disappointed at not getting the Democratic nomination this year.

Newcastle (Ind.) Courier—The Wilson administration will certainly be up against it if it ever runs out of perfumed note paper.

RURAL MAIL QUESTION IS NOT SETTLED YET

It would seem from a contribution to the Richmond Item that the middle created in Wayne county by the motorization of the rural mail routes is by no means settled though two postoffice inspectors were sent to Richmond and, after a study of the situation, shortened the motor routes and added two routes for horse-drawn vehicles. Here is what Samuel A. Moore has to say in a late issue of the Item concerning the motorized routes:

Would you stop my paper?

Not a question, but a request. My time expires July 1, 1916. Would you stop sending the paper to me, and give balance of time to some family in Richmond who is too poor to read your paper or give to some worthy newsboy the benefit of same? My reason for the request:

Under the Gray-Beek efficiency motorized plan I can't keep up with the news. Feb. 19, I got Thursday's paper. Today, Feb. 21, about 2 p. m. I shall have Friday's paper delivered right at my gate, etc. How am I to know the county news? How am I to know anything about the markets? How am I to know the kind of weather promised by the weather man. (I'll know the kind I had.)

Now, Mr. Editor, I like your paper and have read it a long time, but do you blame me for not wanting a daily paper after it gets like old bread, (stale) before reaching me?

I wished amidst the turmoil and smoke of better mail delivery to be fair, and am slow to anger, but there comes a place where forbearance ceases to be a virtue.

Sometime, in the time to come, (not the sweet bye and bye) but when the Burleson-Gray-Beek, the efficient mail carrier and the mortorized system are gathered to the land of their fathers, I aim to have The Item on my reading table. How long must I wait?

Republican Candidate from Orange Township for Commissioner Southern District of Rush County, Primary
March 7, 1916

As it is impossible for me to see everyone personally I take this method of introducing myself to the voters of Rush County, Indiana. I am a farmer, always a staunch and loyal Republican; forty-five years of age, married and with a family. I was trustee for Orange Township for six years, and was elected in 1908. I WAS THE FIRST REPUBLICAN TRUSTEE OF ORANGE TOWNSHIP IN TWENTY YEARS PREVIOUS TO THAT TIME. Said township now has a Democratic Trustee. Have served as administrator for various estates in Rush County. I was Secretary and Treasurer of the Building Committee of the Moscow Christian Church built in 1910, was secretary and treasurer of the Moscow Gas Company for 12 years, and if nominated and elected will give Rush County an economical business administration. I am in favor of good roads and lower taxes.

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

Tender Teeth—the first sign of Pyorrhea

When you brush your teeth, does it feel as though you were brushing against the quick? Do the gums sometimes bleed? This is because pyorrhea has caused the gums to pull away from your teeth, leaving the unenamelled surfaces unprotected.

See your dentist twice yearly. Use Senreco twice daily.

Your dentist will tell you, if you ask him, that you have gum recession; and that gum recession is caused by pyorrhea.

Unchecked, pyorrhea will warp and shrink and deform the gums. It will break down the bony structure into which the teeth are set—and you will eventually lose them. To save your teeth you will have to begin to fight this dread disease at once.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Company 503 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

SHELBYVILLE WINS THE CUP

Having the Edge on Rushville by Playing One Less Game, They Win Final in Tournament.

BEST BASKETBALL OF DAY

Score of 24 to 22 Indicates Fight for Championship — Rushville Eliminates Greensburg.

By a score of 24 to 22 the Rushville team lost the final game of the tournament here Saturday night to Shelbyville. With the game went the championship of the East Central Indiana Athletic association and a fine silver cup.

The contest was a heartbreaker from a Rushville standpoint and the close score is an indication of the fight the two teams engaged in. Shelbyville had the advantage in playing only one game before this final contest, while the final game was the third game of the day for Rushville. This advantage was noticeable toward the end, as the Rushville team was completely worn out.

In the face of these odds the fight of the locals was wonderful and there never was a time when the team quit. Shelbyville won the game and the championship, but the work of the Rushville team will long be remembered. The locals put up their best game and so close was the final score that there was little left for Shelbyville to brag over.

The crowd at the final game packed the gymnasium and the 200 people who were forced to wait in a blinding snow storm for the doors to open were amply repaid. This was the only hitch in the entire tournament. The time for the opening of the doors was never advertised, and in order to get good seats the people went to the gym, as early as seven o'clock. They were forced to wait until 7:30 o'clock and in a night that was one of the worst of the winter. When the doors were opened a near riot resulted as everyone was thoroughly angered and a grand rush followed. No one was hurt, but this was through good fortune.

Shelbyville played a fine guarding game. Harding, Shelbyville's center, was placed against Stoops and he stuck like a leech. Stoops was given very little opportunity at goals with Harding guarding him. The game was a whirlwind affair and so fast was the pace that both teams were forced to take time out towards the close. Several players on both teams were badly battered. Higgins of the Shelbyville team was forced to retire. All of the Rushville boys stuck in the game although all were hardly able to do so.

With two minutes to play and the score standing 22 to 20 in favor of Rushville, Stoops missed two easy chances to score from free throws. This would have placed Rushville to 24 points. A minute later Shelbyville obtained a free throw and made the marker count. A second later a field goal was counted and the game ended by Hall throwing a foul goal, bringing the total up to 24 points.

Shelbyville took an early lead. The Rushville team, while playing hard, had difficulty in locating the basket. At one time in the first half the score stood 8 to 2 in favor of Shelbyville. Then Rushville found the basket and the first half ended 10 to 12 in favor of Shelbyville.

The second half was the same as the first except that play became harder. Each team was so anxious to win that the contest was full of fight. Shelbyville led the way up to the twenty mark and then Rushville took the lead for the first time. At this stage the contest developed into the most exciting ever played on the local floor. Rushville was fighting to escape the first defeat on the home floor, but the task was too big. Despite the loss of the game, the showing of the local team is worthy of praise. Working in the face of big odds, Rushville forced Shelbyville to the limit and the win was the biggest kind of a scratch.

Hall, Shelbyville's guard was the star of his team. The Rushville team had no star, as the team worked and played the best it knew.

In the semi-finals of the basketball tournament Saturday afternoon Rushville had little trouble beating Greensburg, and Shelbyville walked away with Milroy. The scores were: Rushville, 34; Greensburg, 16, and Shelbyville, 43; Milroy, 19.

It was by virtue of winning these games that Shelbyville and Rushville were entitled to play in the final game. The Shelbyville-Milroy game started out like a real contest, but the pace was too stiff for Milroy and Shelbyville fairly rained goals in the final half. The first half ended 18 to 13 in favor of Shelbyville.

The game was rough, with Shelbyville carrying the fight. Milroy was a worthy opponent at the rough game the first half, but could not hold up. Harding was put out of the game for personal fouls and with this loss Shelbyville seemed to take a spurt. Instead of hurting the team Harding's absence appeared to give them determination and Shelbyville proceeded to pile up the count. It was the largest score made in the entire tournament. Rushville did not have to fight very hard to beat Greensburg. A safe margin at the end of the first half clinched the game for the locals. The score at the end of the first session was 17 to 6. Stoops and Martin made field goals almost at will against Greensburg and the score could have been twice as large had the locals not wanted to save up for the final game. With the game safely stored away, the locals knew they would have to face Shelbyville in the final and the entire team took it easy. This was especially true toward the last.

COLUMBUS LOSES.

The Columbus Commercial was defeated by the Fairview Athletic club's basketball team Saturday night at Fairview, 55 to 48. The score at the end of the first half was 30 to 16 in favor of Columbus. The Commercial are one of the strongest independent teams in the state.

FOUNTAIN TOWN COMING.

The Rushville Independents will meet the fast Fountain town Independents tomorrow night at the Graham Annex gym. Fountain town has several Indianapolis players, including Spiegel of Butler and Taylor, an old Purdue varsity guard. They have met Manila on their own floor and lost by a narrow margin. A fast game is assured Rushville fans because the locals have strengthened their defense and perfected several new plays since the Columbus defeat. Rushville is confident of winning.

Example of German Fleet Riding Safely in Kiel Canal Leads to Suggestion Here

SENATOR GIVES REASONS

Would Have Canal Constructed in Chesapeake and Back of Treacherous Coast

(By United Press.)
Washington, Feb. 28.—The example of the German fleet riding safely at anchor in the Kiel canal harbor and picking its own time for combat, was cited today by Senator Saulsbury of Delaware as his reasons for demanding that 49 miles of defensive canals be dug in this country.

The two waterways he proposes one of 75 miles from Chesapeake to Delaware Bay and one from Trenton, N. J., across to Raritan Bay, would provide an inner harbor from the Virginia Capes to the Naragansett Bay. Those defensive projects, in the opinion of military experts, would be equivalent to a large army as a defensive factor. They would enable the American navy to concentrate in safety and force a foe to keep two fleets, each of strength equal to that of the United States fleet, at both the Virginia Capes and off New York harbor, if it attempted a blockade. Such a canal would serve, like a giant moat, as a vast line of defense against land forces, which might attempt to invade the region in which most of the munitions plants and manufacturing concerns of the nation are located. "The time of greatest danger will be just at the close of the European war," said Senator Saulsbury today. "The nations will be at the height of their military power. What kind of navy and coast defenses we have in 1915 is not one-tenth so important as what we have in 1918. The Chesapeake and Delaware canal, 25 feet deep, would cost but $12,000,000, which is less than we pay for a battleship. Yet it would double the effectiveness of our Atlantic fleet. Besides being a most valuable means of defense, this canal would save commercial shipping hundreds of thousands of dollars a year. Ships to reach Baltimore would not need to round the treacherous Virginia Capes, nor to mention the great saving in distance that would be effected. Most naval and transportation men with whom I have talked cannot explain why so obviously a meritorious public improvement has not been put through."

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts: put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Vote for "33" Ezekiel M. Jones (better known as "Zeke") a Republican Candidate for Sheriff, from Ripley Township, Rush County, at Primary March 7, 1916.

I have found it absolutely impossible to see all of the voters before the Primary to solicit their support for my candidacy for Republican nomination for Sheriff of Rush County, but I desire to say that I have always been a loyal, staunch and true blue Republican. I live in Ripley Township now and cast my first vote in Rush County for James G. Blaine. I nor any of my immediate family have never held nor asked for any public office nor have I been the nominee for any except that I was a candidate in 1912 for Sheriff of Rush County and withdrew on the fourth ballot in the county delegate convention, and went out and worked my best for the ticket, as I always have done.

FOR REFERENCE to my Republicanism or qualifications for this office I refer you to any business man or bank in Rush county.

I CAN BE ELECTED IF NOMINATED.

My number on ballot will be 33 on all ballots

I thank you in advance for your support, Yours Very Truly,

CARD CLUB

Another of the pleasant series of the card games enjoyed by the members of the Monday Bridge was the one this afternoon when the members of that club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Frazee in North Main street. The guests enjoyed the informal gathering together as well as the fascinating card round.

CALICO BALL

Leap Year has been and continues to be the inspiration for some of the gayest balls of the season. Another one is coming on March 17th, when the ladies of the Social Club will entertain with a "Calico Ball." The name speaks for itself and with the hospitality of the ladies added to the insured informality and good time that the name suggests, it promises to reflect credit upon the ladies and pleasure upon their guests.

DINNER PARTY.

In honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Frazee of Louisville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frazee entertained a company of friends yesterday at dinner, who joined them in welcoming the guests of honor. The coming spring was suggested in the floral decorations of the table, for a huge bouquet of them graced the center of the dining table around which the merry company gathered. Four faultless courses were served during the prettily appointed meal. The guests which formed this party were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Humes Mr. and Mrs. Ben Humes, Robert Humes and Mrs. Fannie Smith.

DINNER SERIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Amos entertained Saturday evening with a beautiful little dinner party. A bright potted flower made the center of the table attractive for the course dinner that was served. In this pleasant group of guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Huber of Indianapolis Will Inlow, Miss Lucy Inlow, Mrs. Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Harton. A merry evening was spent by this congenial company of guests.

Sunday noon an equally pretty dinner party was given honoring the week-end guests from Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Huber. Another tempting dinner was served and greatly enjoyed. Albert Winship was among the dinner guests.

Another of the series of Elks dances will be given tomorrow evening in the hall, when Mitchell's orchestra will furnish the music.

At the regular meeting of the Immaculata Sodality held yesterday, it was decided to give another Penny Supper in the K. of C. hall on Tuesday March 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Stiers of east of the city entertained at dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark, when a delicious dinner was served.

Miss Henrietta Coleman entertained at a charmingly informal dinner party yesterday noon the Misses Genevieve Brown, Helen Scott and Mary and Nora Sleeth. A pretty potted plant adorned the center of the prettily set table.

Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Sparks entertained yesterday at dinner in honor of their guest, Mrs. Carpenter of St. Louis. As guests at this pleasant little family affair were Mr. and Mrs. George Young and Mrs. Harriet Sparks.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. William Matthew were the host and hostess yesterday for several of their intimate friends when they entertained them at noon dinner. At the table, which breathed fragrance with the spring flowers, the guests enjoyed the tempting courses of the dinner, which was served to Mr. and Mrs. Carney Gardner and Mrs. Elmer Miller. The afternoon was equally pleasant as the amiable company enjoyed a chat together.

SUPPER PARTY.

One of the most pleasant features of the basketball tournament for a certain merry crowd of young people was the supper at the home of Bruce Carr, when the boys entertained several of their girl friends, on Saturday evening. The girls added their help in preparing the delicious repast and in doing so a general good time was enjoyed. In this merry crowd which gathered in the beautiful Carr home, were the Misses Mary Louise Bliss, Kathryn Giffin, Lois Reeves, Fae Youll of Indianapolis and Helen Frazee, Bruce Carr, Paul Parrish, Wilbur Cox, William Sexton and Forrest Jones. Immediately after the supper the crowd hurried off to the tournament.

FOR MR. AND MRS. DARNELL

Several delightful farewell parties have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Darnell, who will leave Falmouth soon to make their home west of this city, but perhaps the gayest of these was the surprise yesterday given by fifty of their friends and neighbors. The whole affair was a complete surprise and all the more pleasant for being so, when the crowd burst in upon them with large baskets containing the bountiful dinner which they spread and served in buffet style in the spacious dining room. During the dinner as well as through the afternoon hours, musical numbers were enjoyed and a genial good time was spent. It is a matter of regret for the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Darnell in Falmouth and vicinity that they are leaving soon to make their home elsewhere.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

The seventy-fourth birthday of Mrs. Mary Junken of Arlington, was the cause yesterday for several members of her family to gather from far and near at her home and honor her with an elaborate dinner, which they had brought with them. Another suggestion of their esteem for her was the number of pretty birthday gifts with which she was remembered. A sumptuous dinner was the result of the combined efforts of the guests, none of whom enjoyed the party more than the guest of honor, aside from whom there were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Junken of Reedville and son Guy, of Tipton, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Junken of Fairland, Harry Snider of Indianapolis, Miss Ruth Parrish of Carthage, Ed Junken, Mr.

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Rushville.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills revive sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Here's Rushville proof:

Taylor M. Loyd, 940 W. Third St., Rushville, says: "My back ached steadily and at times was so weak that I could hardly be about. The kidney secretions were first too frequent in passage, then again too seldom. I used about four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at Fox Bros. Drug Store and they did just as recommended, relieving me in a short time."

NEW YORK FASHION NOTES

By MARGARET MASON
(Written for United Press.)

At odds with the whole world you surely will be

If you don't don the odd looking things that you see.

Now offered as fashionable "derrrier cri."

New York, Feb. 28.—The odds and ends of the imminent sartorial season are bound to make both ends meet by making both ends odd. Just which end will be odder were hard to say since though some of the hats are the quintessence of quaintness, so too are some of the low down boots. Where a parasol is the heights of novelty a pair of stockings may sound the depths of originality. A striking hand bag in the hand is offset by a lot of raff stuff in the neck. Of all the mad conceits of a mad hatter the chap-eau that has a life size chauntaleer, comb wattles and all roosting all over the crown and completely overshadowing the tiny turban brim, is undoubtedly the true poultry of millinery. Another quaint hat is shaped like a broad brimmed sailor with an under brim of straw and the upper part, crown and all, composed of inch wide crossgrain ribbons running from the edge of the brim to the top of the crown in alternating tints of old blue, old rose, yellow, purple and ecru. In the center these ribbons come together in a long tassel of their own fringed lengths. A pair of shoes that absolutely kicks over all traces of conventionality is to be worn with an evening gown of violet net over an embroidered and spangled slip of green taffeta the shade of a tender young crocus shoot. The sensational boots are of violet kid with uppers of green taffeta ornately embroidered in ins prayers of spangled herbage. Stockings a mass of sequins up to the calf are odd stockings even if they do go in pairs. Another stocking that offers untold but not unwritten possibilities has your name, your favorite motto or pet expression embroidered in script on the instep. Why not have one's first name on the right stocking and last name on the left? Think what a saving this would be of cards. One need only point her toes to be identified. Something new under the sun and over the daughter of Eve is a parasol of greed edged in a vine of artificial rambler roses and leaves. Another one of Chinese yellow drops tiny blue tassels from the tip of each rib and has a tiny necklace of blue beads around the tip of its fernule. For a belle of fashion comes a bell of a bag. It end for a clapper. Undoubtedly this is of silk and is ruffled out in the shape of a bell with a tassel at the was designed for the woman who insists on carrying her rings in her hand bag. Up to her ears in ruffs and chokers of pastel tinted batiste is the Spring maid and for her there is no escape from the cape of white or tinted batiste that starts as a collar and finishes down around the shoulders. It is called a nun collar and is unbecoming to none.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

Decatur, Feb. 28.—If you owned oodles and oodles of money, had a happy home, and was offered a job at fifteen cents an hour for just walking, would you do it? M. F. Prisinger and A. R. Brentlinger did. One is a prominent and wealthy horseman, a candidate for a county office, and the other is principal of a school. They walked to Monroe and return, twelve miles, made the trip in three hours and collected forty-five cents each from Marsh Burdge, who employed them to walk for him. Burdge made the offer as a bluff, but they called his bluff.

OFFENSIVE CRUMBLES

(By United Press.)

Paris, Feb. 28.—The German offensive on a 25-mile front north and northeast of Verdun is now crumbling in a series of local actions according to dispatches received here this afternoon.

Harry Deweiss underwent an operation Sunday at his home south of the city.

Amusements

The Princess offers the five reel feature "The Family Cupboard," for the program tonight. The play is based on the well-known Brady stage success of the same name. Holbrook Blinn plays the leading character in the story, a man who leads a double life, simply because his home life is uncongenial. Father and son discover that they are wasting their lives on a worthless object and reform. The family cupboard is cleared of its skeleton. Mr. Blinn's part is a strong one, and he does it the amplest justice. Miss Frances Nelson supports him in this play. Tomorrow night the three act drama "The Woman with a Rose" will be shown.

The Mystic offers the usual four reels for tonight. The first is a two act drama "The Law of Love." The second is a one act comedy entitled "His Last Wish." The program will end with a comedy "Tale of a Tire."

At the Shubert Murat Theatre for two nights, commencing Tuesday, March 7th, with a matinee on Wednesday, local theatregoers will have the first opportunity of seeing a New York Winter Garden production direct from Broadway. In this instance, "A World of Pleasure," the latest and most extravagant production ever staged at the famous New York Theatre, comes straight to the Shubert Murat with the original cast of 150 people.

Massiveness, gorgeousness and loveliness best described this latest creating from the home of national musical revenues. There are two acts and six times as many scenes, which once the curtain rises upon the first vision of magnificent scenery and fashionably attired girls, whose beauty has been the talk of New York for months, the audience cannot help but awe at the pretentiousness of it all.

In "A World of Pleasure" many happy mediums have been met, both from a scenic standpoint and the even balancing of the cast. Comedy, as far as the cast is concerned, is always the keynote, and in "A World of Pleasure" there are such capital entertainers as Clifton Crawford, Conroy & LaMaire, Margaret Edwards, Collins & Hart, Franklin Batie, McMahon, Diamond Chaplow, Vonita Fitzhugh, Helen Goff, Emily Miles, Aveling & Lloyd, Winona Wilkens, Emily Schaefer, the famous Rosie Quinn, and more than 125 others, comprising the supreme beauty chorus of the world.

Never in the history of the Winter Garden has a production left that theatre in such a world of glory, nor has a production met with greater approval by both public and press. This gigantic entertainment is proclaimed the biggest achievement in musical comedy in the last decade.

Orders are now being taken for this attraction.

Seats for this attraction can be purchased through the Shubert Murat local representative, Hargrove & Mullin.

MAKE OVER $150.

Over a hundred and fifty dollars has been cleared by the Dramatic Club of the Gings high school during the last few weeks, when they have been playing "From Sumpter to Appomattox" in the surrounding towns, including Orange, Falmouth, Kennard, Shelbyville, Glenwood and Gings. Saturday evening they played in Raleigh, next Saturday in Mays, and in Arlington at some future date. The money cleared will be used for the purchase of a piano in the high school. In the cast are F. E. Sutton, Donald Foster, Edward Bell, Richard McManus, Vern Bell, Charlie Hiers and the Misses Marie Kizer and Millie Vandament.

"THE NATIONAL PERIL"

The Rev. Frank W. Sumner of Indianapolis, Ind., will deliver his stirring lecture on "Our National Peril," at the Hannigan church on March 1, 1916, at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. Sumner is a field-worker for the American Temperance Board, which is the official temperance organization of the Christian church. His special duty is to present the cause of temperance before the churches through his lectures and in this way to stir the consciences of the people on the present national issue. There will be no admission.

DO THIS FIRST—YOU!

You know, and every physician knows, that when any sickness has passed, whether it be throat trouble, organic disturbances, contagious diseases, or even a severe cold, a relapse is feared, because sickness robs the system of Nature's resistance and leaves it subject to lingering germs.

Drugs never build up a worn-out body—only food can do that, and the first thing to take after any sickness is the concentrated, blood-making oil-food in Scott's Emulsion, which feeds the tissues, benefits the blood and strengthens both lungs and throat.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion after sickness. Nurses everywhere advocate it. Scott's is pure medicinal food, without alcohol or drugs.

pointing viewers. L. A. Kline of Waterloo township, Fayette county and William A. Posey of this county were appointed viewers and they ordered to report on March 20. Adolphus Cameron, county engineer, was appointed engineer for the road.

The petition asks for a gravel highway and the petitioners are confident that the viewers will report favorably. There is another petition in circulation asking for the improvement of the same road from Falmouth on northward to the county line. This improvement affects Washington township, Itush county and Posey township, Fayette county. It was stated today that enough signers had already been secured and that the petition would be presented at the next regular meeting of the Rush county board. If this petition and the one already under consideration goes through it will make a road of some twelve miles in length.

The county council had difficulty getting a quorum and as a result the meeting scheduled for this morning was postponed until late this afternoon. The county council was awaiting the arrival of Rolle Zornie from Gung and it was expected that the meeting would start shortly after three o'clock. The council at this session is expected to make an appropriation for a new roof for the court house in addition to some bridge appropriations. Both of these appropriations will amount to $15,000 or over and to make both the council will have to be in session again Tuesday.

of further consideration.

There is a postal statute which provides that no motor vehicle may be used without special permit from postal authorities, and since the action at Washington is unfavorable toward the motor plan, this statute, no doubt, will remain unchanged. It was passed so that only horse-drawn vehicles could be used, thereby making the time spent on a rural delivery extend until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, rather than to permit of motor vehicles making the same trip in four hours or less.

FIGHT ON SUGAR IS PROMISED

Congress in Throes of Tariff Battle as Democrats Now Want Duty to Remain

GREAT SOURCE OF REVENUE

President Favors "Free Sugar," But Some of Leaders Are Opposed to it at This Time.

By BOND F. GEDDES
(U. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Feb. 28.—Congress today is in the throes of another tariff fight. Partisan politics is at fever heat. Lobbyists are busy. The American sugar bowl is the cause. "Free sugar," is the battle cry.

Repeal of the clause in the new Wilson-Underwood tariff act which would place sugar on the free list, removing about 1 per cent a pound duty, on May 1 is the proposal causing the turmoil. The result has far-reaching effect on the American and foreign sugar growing and refining industries, as well as on the price the people shall pay to fill their sugar bowls.

Initiated in the House by Democratic Leader Kitchin, the resolution proposing that the present duty of approximately 1 cent a pound shall be continued on sugar is an administration measure, urged by President Wilson in his opening message to Congress last December. Because of declining revenues caused by the war, the President asked that the free sugar schedule be rescinded. The Kitchin resolution provides for its outright repeal and not its indefinite suspension.

The administration leaders in Congress today are contending that the war makes necessary continuance of sugar duties, probably the biggest single source of custom duty revenues. In 1915 the net revenue from sugar was $45,000,000. The Democrats contend that but for the war, with its disturbance of commerce and curtailment of customs receipts, the treasury would not have needed the sugar revenue.

On the other hand, the Republicans are loudly proclaiming that the Democrats are admitting and rectifying a serious error in their tariff revision of 1913 when they passed the Wilson-Underwood bill. Both political factions are making the utmost capital of this situation for this year's presidential campaign purposes.

The present 1-cent-a-pound duty is about 1-2 cent less than that of the Payne-Aldrich tariff act. The Wilson-Underwood bill proposed to take off the tariff piecemeal, leaving free sugar to become effective May 1.

Many Democrats are opposing outright repeal, urging instead, indefinite suspension of the free sugar provision, so that when war conditions become adjusted sugar can be made duty free without cumbersome legislation. They also believe such a course would minimize republican charges that they admit having made a basic error.

Republicans in both the Senate and House are for the Democratic resolution to continue the present duty. But they insist first on taunting the Democrats for the alleged mistake.

Passage of the duty-continuing resolution, with both parties voting for it, is regarded assured eventually after a long wordy war.

Tariff experts say the repeal of free sugar will not affect present retail prices to the consumer. Effect of partial tariff reduction already has been felt, they declare.

But a big revival in the American sugar industry, both cane and beet, is expected to result from continuing the present duty. With the 1-cent-a-pound protection, Louisiana cane growers, who put their canefields into other crops when the sugar schedule was revised downward, are reported planting new groves. Increased acreage of sugar beets and more production in western beet sugar factories is also expected.

Political effects are bound up in the sugar question. Following the Louisiana cane growers' declaration that "free sugar" would ruin them, a Progressive congressman was elected last year from that rock-bound Democratic state.

An interesting story, is told in connection with the sugar tariff. President Wilson himself, it is said, was most insistent upon making sugar duty free. Senator Underwood then House leader, bitterly opposed it, but at the President's behest finally wrote the "free sugar" clause in the bill. Then it was estimated the indirect tax burden upon consumers would be reduced $115,000,000 a year. Whether the refiners or the consumers would benefit by the reduced tariff has been and is still a point of partisan debate.

LIFE IS BRIGHT
AFTER 15 YEARS

Mrs. Amanda Platt of Muncie, Attributes Recent Relief to Tanlac.

Muncie, Ind., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Amanda Platt, a well known Muncie woman, who lives at 808 South Elm street, after fifteen years' suffering, has found a relief from the severe pains caused by rheumatism. Mrs. Platt recently said, regarding her experiences with Tanlac, the Master Medicine:

"I am so happy, for I know I have at last succeeded in getting rid of the terrible pain I had to endure for so long. Never during all the time that I was sick could I sleep on my left side because of the pain when my body touched the side of the bed. It would be impossible for me to describe my former suffering.

"I also had stomach trouble and was annoyed by my stomach filling with gas. My appetite, also, was poor.

"Since taking Tanlac I feel like a woman made over again. The change in my condition is the most wonderful thing in my life. The rheumatism pains are gone, my appetite has returned, and I sleep soundly. Life, again, has become bright to me."

Not only for rheumatism and stomach trouble, as in Mrs. Platt's case, is Tanlac beneficial, but for liver and kidney troubles, nervousness, insomnia and the like, it is excellent, also.

Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. WOLCOTT'S drug store.

FAILURE IN SIGHT

(By United Press.)
Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 28.—This is seed corn week in Iowa. Following a wet, cold summer the corn crop was a partial failure and examination of seed corn has shown that a surprising amount of it will not germinate. So alarmed are the experts, bankers and agricultural editors that they convinced Gov. Geo. W. Clarke that Iowa faced another bad corn year, this time from a light crop because of poor seed corn, and he has designated this week as "Seed Corn Week" during which every farmer is urged to test his seed corn. In northern Iowa counties it is estimated that at least half of the seed corn is poor and thousands of bushels will be imported from the southwest.

Tell him to give you Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, instead of being induced into buying something else purely on the strength of some testimonials or the exaggerated claims of the manufacturer. The same "Money Back" guarantee goes with every bottle of this remedy sold by Fox Bros. as does with Dr. Schiffmann's famous Asthmador and your money will be refunded, if it does not give perfect satisfaction; in fact even more, if it is not found the best remedy ever used for these affections. In buying this new remedy besides securing the guarantee these druggists give, it will likewise be found the most economical to use,

TO GIVE WARNING

"These are impressive words," said a high official of the foreign office today as he read press versions of the Wilson letter.

"Will Germany reply to those statements?" he was asked.

"President Wilson could not have had our data regarding British instructions to merchantmen to attack submarines when he wrote this letter."

"Surely, by arming merchantmen and instructing them to take the offensive against submarines, the allies violate international law first, thereby endangering American lives," he declared.

Germany counts upon the American congress to force a backdown from President Wilson in the controversy over armed merchantmen.

Officials here refused to comment for publication but the general feeling is that if the matter is referred to congress, a resolution will be put through warning Americans not to take passage on belligerent armed ships.

The belief is expressed by the Berlin press that President Wilson does not want congress to take a hand, fearing that debate over the question may embitter American opinion.

Though reports that a majority in question may force President Wilson to yield to Germany have aroused hope for a peaceful settlement, the German attitude is daily growing more tense. Not only the public but officials are frankly bitter in their criticism of President Wilson for refusing to warn Americans off belligerent armed merchantmen.

LABOR WILL PLAY BIG PART

England Expects Big Things Following The War

(By United Press.)
London, Feb. 28.—The belief that labor will figure extensively in British government counsels when peace is restored in Europe is gaining ground steadily. "After the war is over," said Lord Denman, for example, in an address in the house of peers, "labor is bound to play a very prominent part in the political life of this country. It is possible that a labor government or a government largely composed of labor men will be in power." The ex-governor-general of Australia qualified his prediction with the remark that "if labor men now fail to rise to the full height of their responsibilities and to realize that they are Englishmen first and trade unionists second, and if they hamper administration of the military compulsion act, it seems to me their advent to power will be delayed for many years."

Mrs. L. R. Bishop of northeast of the city, who was operated on at Sexton's sanatorium Saturday of last week is doing nicely.

Kaiser Using All His Resources For

War, It is Said

VERDUN ATTACK PRELUDE

(By United Press.)

London, Feb. 28.—With all the resources at his command, the kaiser is now striking for an immediate and overwhelming German victory and planned to end the world war.

The German onslaught started against Verdun is but the prelude to a grand assault by the Germans along the whole western front—the most tremendous defensive movement the world has ever seen.

Prince Henry of Prussia has taken over a high command in the German navy, preliminary to the beginning of the new submarine campaign against armed merchantmen.

ARE INCENSED BY
ANONYMOUS ATTACK

Republicans Here Angered by Receipt of Unsigned Pamphlet Attacking Watson

FROM ROOM 425, CLAYPOOL

Republicans here were angered today by the receipt of an anonymous attack on James E. Watson, candidate for the Republican senatorial nomination, sent out from Room 425, Claypool hotel, Indianapolis. They were not accusing Harry S. New followers, but they are mighty suspicious because New's headquarters are at the Claypool, and many thought in room 425.

The anonymous attack dealt with James E. Watson's race for governor in 1908, developing the fact mainly that he ran behind Taft in Indiana. This question was raised by a correspondent to the Indianapolis Star some time ago and another correspondent replied with the showing that practically all Republican candidates for governor in 1908 ran behind Taft. It was also shown that Watson's campaign was hindered by the county option issue, which was settled in the middle of his campaign by a special session of the legislature called by Hanly.

Republicans were incensed most by the declaration in the anonymous pamphlet that Watson could not be elected if nominated.

TIME FOR MORTGAGE
EXEMPTION IS NEAR

May be Filed Any Time During March on One-Half Assessed Value of The Property

THEY MUST NOT EXCEED $700.

The time for the annual filing of mortgage exemptions is drawing near and many Rush county propertyowners are again preparing to take advantage of the statute.

The law provides that any property owner against whose property there is a mortgage may file an exemption on the mortgage. The exemption allowed is one-half the assessed value of the property up to $700. No exemption can be for a greater sum than $700. Exemptions may be made out by any notary public. The time for the filing of mortgage exemptions is from March 1 until April 30 each year. Usually between 3,000 and 4,000 exemptions are filed in Rush county each year.

Traveling 50 Miles an Hour

"COST $20; WORTH THE MONEY"

Ben Sparks has a letter from A. B. Irvin, who is at West Palm Beach, Florida, saying that he went up in a hydroplane for ten minutes. He was one thousand feet high and traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

"It cost twenty dollars for ten minutes," writes Mr. Irvin, "but it was worth the money."

Mr. Irvin has always said that he intended to buy an aeroplane when they were perfected so that they were comparatively safe. In order to uphold his past record, Mr. Irvin will have to buy an air-lip. He owned the first bicycle and first automobile ever in Rushville. He had the first telephone here and also purchased the first dictophone and the first adding machine ever in use in this city.

sions of the statute," according to a local man, who states that many people have the idea that the exemptions must be filed by March 15, whereas the law gives until April 30 for the filing. Some people have the idea that the exemption must be for $700 whereas the exemption may be for any amount under that sum, providing the exemption is not more than half as great as the assessed value of the property.
